

My Stompin' Grounds

Stompin' Tom Connors

HEY EVERYBODY: This is Stompin' Tom Connors. And here's Another Roundup of Canadian songs I hope you'll find both informative and enjoyable. From the time I was a young lad on the farm in St. John's Pond, Prince Edward Island until now, I have always been interested in the folk lore and the legends of our land and in the people who share in our great heritage.

It has often bothered me though, why so very little is ever said about the men and women of our country, who have often stood alone in courage and determination, in trying to contribute in their own way towards making this nation what it's come to be today.

Now mine is only one small voice, but I'll be using it as often as I can in the only way I know how to bring the deeds of these Canadians and the happenings of this land to the attention of all.

On this Album as on previous Albums, you will find songs that make my point clear. And I find great pleasure in sitting down and writing this type of material and presenting it to you for your sign of approval.

Some songs you'll find very straight-forward and serious, while others will be light-hearted and may even bring the odd chuckle. But the main objective will be to inform the public of any one area about what is happening to other people in other areas.

Men like Wilf Carter who has thousands of loyal fans who buy his phonograph records every year needs very little introduction, while it seems a bit of a shame why the great airplane pilot, Wop May, who won so many medals and decorations during the First and second World Wars, must remain in obscurity.

But then again this might not seem so strange, when on occasion you ask somebody who seems very knowledgeable about Foreign Affairs and World Events, to name the Provincial Capitals, and he's stumped for an answer.

In summing up this letter, I would like to dedicate this album to the Steel Men who lost their lives in Vancouver in June 1958, when the "Bridge" they were building "Came Tumbling Down". Also to the Tobacco Farmers and Farmers I worked with in South-western Ontario, and to the people who are lucky enough to witness the phenomenal return of the Sockeye and Coho Salmon up the beautiful rivers of British Columbia.

Last but not least, I would dedicate "The Song of The Irish Moss" to my fellow Prince Edward Islanders and to my step-father, Russell Aylward, of Skimmer Pond.

Sincerely,
