

The background of the book cover is a historical map of Deerfield, Massachusetts. The map is drawn in a sepia or aged paper tone. It shows the Connecticut River flowing through the center, with several settlements marked along its banks. At the top, 'Deerfield' is labeled. Below it, 'Springfield' is visible on the left bank. To the right, 'Northampton' and 'Hartford' are partially visible. The map includes details of roads, bridges, and the surrounding landscape with hills and fields. The title box is superimposed over the central part of the map, specifically over the river and the town of Deerfield.
