English in globalization re examining and re interpreting the contemporary contexts of its acquisition and use The chapters contained in this book weave together four inter related themes that define the role of English in the global context the centrality of structure relationships of interdependence social constructions of difference and reproduction of inequality These themes enable the authors to draw attention to the dynamics of the contemporary realities of the English speaking and English using nations especially as they compete for cultural social economic and symbolic capital in global networks In engaging World Englishes with the sociolinguistics of globalization the authors raise some fundamental questions about the status structure and functions of World Englishes Englishes Around the World: Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Australasia

Manfred Görlach, Edgar Werner Schneider, 1997-01-01 The two volumes of Englishes around the World present high quality original research papers written in honour of Manfred Görlach founder and editor of the journal English World Wide and the book series Varieties of English Around the World The papers thematically focus on the field that Manfred Görlach has helped to build and shape Volume 2 of Englishes Around the World presents studies of so called New Englishes post colonial varieties as spoken predominantly in countries of the former British Empire There are five contributions on the Caribbean covering Jamaica Guyana and Trinidad five articles on Africa South Africa East Africa and Nigeria six studies of English in Asian countries Japan the Philippines India Singapore Malaysia and Papua New Guinea and six papers on Australia and New Zealand Topics covered range from sociohistorical causes and processes the nativization of English in different countries or the expression of individual identities by means of the English language through structural descriptions to sociolinguistic psycholinguistic lexicographic pragmatic stylistic and other matters The articles in the respective sections are written by D R Craig L M Haynes P L Patrick K Shields Brodber and L Winer A Banjo V de Klerk R Mesthrie J Schmied and P Silva R W Bailey R Begum and T Kandiah A Gonzalez R R Mehrotra P M Hlusler and M Newbrook L Bauer S Butler M Clyne P Peters and A Delbridge G Tulloch and G W Turner Legacies of Colonial English

Raymond Hickey, 2005-02-24 As a result of colonization many varieties of English now exist around the world Originally published in 2005 Legacies of Colonial English brings together a team of internationally renowned scholars to discuss the role of British dialects in both the genesis and subsequent history of postcolonial Englishes Considering the input of Scottish English and Irish dialects they closely examine a wide range of Englishes including those in North and South America South Africa Asia Australia and New Zealand and explain why many of them still reflect non standard British usage from the distant past Complete with a checklist of dialect features a detailed glossary and set of general references on the topic of postcolonial Englishes this book will be an invaluable source to scholars and students of English language and linguistics particularly those interested in sociolinguistics historical linguistics and dialectology World Englishes Hans-Georg Wolf, Frank Polzenhagen, 2009-02-26 The book is the first of its kind to establish Cognitive Linguistics as a research paradigm within the field of world Englishes The authors survey the main tenets of both areas of linguistic enquiry and suggest that the theoretical and methodological apparatus developed both within Cognitive Linguistics generally and within its novel sub discipline Cognitive Sociolinguistics can overcome certain limitations inherent in traditional approaches to cultural variation in language They present a case study of the linguistic realization of the cultural model of community in African English as an exemplar for the investigation of cultural models in other varieties of English Corpus linguistic methods are combined with conceptual metaphor analysis and blending theory to elucidate a vast network of conceptualizations salient to speakers of African English The findings based on computer corpora and a range of additional sources are discussed against the background of work in anthropology religious studies and political science The book also reflects on the role of English in intercultural communication and concludes with a comparison of Cognitive Linguistics and pragmatic functionalism placing the former in the wider framework of a hermeneutic philosophy that stresses dialogic understanding
