A Great Dane is as happy in a condo as it is in a castle, all it needs is love and attention. Remember though this breed's huge size means it takes up a lot of physical space on your bed, on your sofa, on your lap and especially in your heart which is where he or she will always want to be. What's more, raise a Great Dane alongside other animals and you will have no problem. They crave company regardless of whether their brother or sister is a Pug or a Pointer. Like all big dogs though they need to be trained as puppies and learn how not to throw their considerable weight around. Great Danes love to range meaning they need space to move around freely rather than intense exercise. So if you are welcoming a Dane into a small size home be ready to go out on regular walks. If you are thinking about making a Great Dane a part of your family or are already a Dane owner then be aware a Great Dane is a huge commitment. From choosing your Great Dane to managing his or her final journey across the Rainbow Bridge read on and discover everything you need to know about these big hearted hounds.
