politics economics cultural studies and social theory in an effort to forge a truly coherent and meaningful agenda for the future of copyright It comprises thoughtful critical and often challenging contributions from an international multidisciplinary network of scholars New Directions in Sustainable Design Adrian Parr, Michael Zaretsky, 2010-10-09

This book brings together new and emerging perspectives on sustainability Combining a series of well known authors in contemporary philosophy with established practitioners of sustainable design it develops a coherent theoretical framework for how a philosophy of sustainability might engage with the growing practice of sustainable design New Directions in

Contemporary Architecture Luigi Prestinenza Puglisi, 2008-05-05 Rem Koolhaas has defined architecture as a chaotic adventure Nothing could be more true than that of the last two decades Never has architecture been so unbridled and so extraordinary the architectural cast has never been so wide and their works so diverse What though if you are new to the subject How is it possible to make sense of this seemingly unruly architectural landscape There are so many different types of architecture so many designers with such varying and even contradictory approaches This book is a much needed navigation guide for anyone interested in modern architecture Organised chronologically it enables you to find your way through one of the most prolific periods of building design It looks at buildings in often contrasting styles that have been built almost simultaneously across the world with their roots in very different tendencies and schools of thought A loose but effective framework is provided which pulls all these multiple threads together while key buildings are described individually with a unique clarity and precision Aaron Betsky Director of Cincinnati Art Museum Comprehensive coherent and cogent

Puglisi's book sorts out the messy history of the last quarter century of the world's best architecture. Professor Iain Borden, Head, Bartlett School of Architecture, UCL, illuminating and insightful, a must-have read for students. Hans Ibelings, Editor of A10, new European architecture, lucid and concise. Charles Jencks, Architecture Critic and Author, a compelling comprehensive overview of the avant-garde since 1988 as it oscillates in and out of the global star system. Bill Menking, Editor of The Architect's Newspaper. This is the first clear and systematic study of the culture of architecture from the reds of deconstruction to the sustainable greens.

John Dalton, Elizabeth Musgrave, 2023-08-10. This book addresses the work of architect John Dalton, 1927-2007, an important voice in mid-century modernism in Australia whose work, despite his being exhibited and published internationally and also winning several awards for his designs, is woefully little known. Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series, which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects, the book draws on previously unpublished archival documents including Dalton's drawings and paintings, transcripts of lectures, letters, and articles, plans, and photographic images of built works to characterize the architect not only as a very talented designer but also as a pioneer of environmentalist thinking in Australia. The book reveals how Dalton's architectural preoccupations parallel a transition in mid-century modern architecture globally from functional efficiency and material rationalism to a concern with being in dialogue with the environment, confirming a wider environmental turn that involved the integration of environmental with cultural considerations through relational thinking and which preceded and transcends the discipline's fascination with theoretical paradigms such as Critical Regionalism. John Dalton, Subtropical Modernism and the Turn to Environment in Australian Architecture, is thus not only an important contribution to the existing scholarship on 20th-century modernism but also to the current renewed interest in environmental design across the globe.

Australia, Harry Margalit, 2019-11-15. This book tells the story of the architects and buildings that have defined Australia's architectural culture since the founding of the modern nation through Federation in 1901. That year marked the beginning of a search for better city forms and buildings to accommodate the changing realities of Australian life and to express an emerging distinctive and eventually confident Australian identity. While Sydney and Melbourne were the settings for many of the major buildings, all states and territories developed architectural traditions based on distinctive histories and climates. Harry Margalit explores the flowering of these many architectural variants from the bid to create a model city in Canberra through the stylistic battles that opened a space for modernism to the idealism of postwar reconstruction and beyond to the new millennium. Australia reveals a vibrant and influential culture of the built environment at its best when it matches civic idealism with the sensuality of a country of stunning light and landscapes.

Shifting Views, Andrew Leach, Antony Moulis, Nicole Sully, 2008. Shifting Views draws together a selection of writing from across twenty-five years of these conferences to provide a fascinating view into the region's architectural history discipline. The essays collected here from such diverse thinkers as Judith Brine, Joan Kerr, Miles Lewis, Sarah Treadwell, Philip Goad, Julie Willis and Mike Austin reflect some of the most illuminating debates from these conferences Together these essays capture a tone of critical inquiry and the conditions of writing architectural history in Australia and New Zealand Shifting Views takes us into the mechanics of architectural history making exposing its foundations and demonstrating how they can be called to account It shows us how architectural history has been made and revised giving us a glimpse of the means why which our past becomes our history BOOK JACKET      Summerson and Hitchcock Frank E.
