

The background of the cover is an abstract composition of several overlapping planes. A large, dark, textured plane occupies the upper right and middle sections. A lighter, more detailed textured plane, possibly resembling stone or wood grain, is visible in the upper left and bottom right. A dark, angular shape is positioned in the lower right. The overall effect is one of depth and geometric complexity.

New Directions In Prose Poetry 24:

New Directions in Prose and Poetry 24 James Laughlin, 1972 Guy Davenport and James Laughlin Guy Davenport, James Laughlin, 2007 Still with his life as entwined as it was with New Directions Laughlin speaks often and interestingly about some of the giants of the modern period most often Ezra Pound in whose work Davenport had a deep interest The most distinct aspect of their correspondence stems from the fact that although Laughlin ended up publishing some of Davenport's work their friendship was the primary force behind their letters More than simply detailing an author publisher relationship these letters depict two fine minds educating and supporting each other in the service of literature Jacket

The Woman with the Flying Head and Other Stories Kurahashi Yumiko, Atsuko Sakaki, 2015-05-20 This is an English language anthology dedicated to the short stories of Kurahashi Yumiko 1935 a Japanese novelist of profound intellectual powers The eleven stories included in this volume suggest the breadth of the author's literary production ranging from parodies of classical Japanese literature to cosmopolitan avant garde works from quasi autobiography to science fiction Her subversive fiction defies established definitions of literature Japan modernity and femininity and represents an important intellectual aspect of modern Japanese women's literature

Marketing Modernisms Kevin J. H. Dettmar, Stephen Myers Watt, 2025-10-01 Rarely have genres of literary expression been looked upon or read as commodities within a market system we tend to think of our literature as pure untainted by any interaction with the world of commerce Critical accounts of modernism are frequently theorized across the divide between the project itself and the larger marketplace the world of consumption Marketing Modernisms calls into question this curious separation and examines the material intellectual and ideological practices that comprise the notion of marketing Marketing Modernisms is concerned with Anglo American modernists and their potential readers in both the popular audience and the academy Examining the forms of promotion employed by book publishing houses in the editorial offices of literary magazines and in the minds of modern writers the essays bring to the fore little known connections between writers such as Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Langston Hughes and the commercial marketplace they engaged The book's provocative themes include the strategies that modernists and their publishers employed to market their work to fashion themselves as artists or celebrities and to bridge the gap between an avant garde elite and the popular reader Other essays explore the difficulties confronted by women African American and gay and lesbian writers in gaining literary acceptance and achieving commercial representation while maintaining the gendered racial and sexual aspects of their lives

Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections Marietta Chicorel, 1974 Other People's Mail Gail Pool, 2000 The first collection of its kind Other People's Mail is a unique and important anthology Pool's highly informative introduction explores the nature of letter fiction and her individual preface to each story provides background information on both the author and the tale A select listing of additional letter stories rounds out the anthology

Modernist Poetry, Gender and Leisure

Technologies Alex Goody, 2019-10-29 Modernist Poetry Gender and Leisure Technologies Machine Amusements explores how modernist women poets were inspired by leisure technologies to write new versions of the gendered subject. Focusing on American women writers and particularly on the city of New York, the book argues that the poetry of modernist women that engages with, examines, or critiques the new leisure technologies of their era is fundamentally changed by the encounter with that technology. The chapters in the book focus on shopping, advertising, dance, film, radio, and phonography on city spaces such as Coney Island, Greenwich Village, and Harlem, and on poetry that embraces the linguistic and formal innovations of modernism whilst paying close attention to the embodied politics of gender. The technologized city and the leisure cultures and media forms emerging from it enabled modernist women writers to re-imagine forms of lyric embodiment inspired by the impact of technology on modern ideas of selfhood and subjectivity. Robert Duncan Robert Duncan, 2014-01-04. Profoundly original yet insistent on the derivative quality of his work, transgressive yet affirmative of tradition. Robert Duncan (1919-1988) was a generative force among American poets, and his poetry and poetics establish him as a major figure in mid and late 20th century American letters. This second volume of Robert Duncan's collected poetry and plays presents authoritative annotated texts of both collected and uncollected work from his middle and late writing years (1958-1988) with commentaries on each of the five books from this period: The Opening of the Field, Roots and Branches, Bending the Bow, and the two volumes of Ground Work. The biographical and critical introduction discusses Duncan as a late Romantic and postmodern American writer, his formulation of a homosexual poetics, his development of the serial poem, the notation and centrality of sound as organizing principle, his relations with such fellow poets as Robin Blaser, Charles Olson, and Jack Spicer, his indebtedness to Alfred North Whitehead, and his collaborations with the painter Jess Collins, his lifelong partner. Texts include his anti-war poems of the 1960s and 70s, his homages to Dante and other canonical poets, and his translations from the French of Gérard de Nerval, as well as the complete Structure of Rime and Passages series. New Serial Titles, 1989. A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31, 1949.
