Stamps, 2013-08-01 Endorsements Robert Stamps offers us a compelling case for the significance of the theology of Thomas Torrance to current discussions about Trinitarian doctrine and worship He shows that Torrance's Christology and Eucharistic thought validates the Reformed confession of a profound real spiritual presence in the Eucharist This book serves as a helpful introduction to Torrance especially his framing of revelation Moreover it invigorates our understanding of the theological meaning of sacramental devotion Its readers will be stimulated provoked and dare I say inspired by its insights into and critiques of one of the most important and recent Reformed thinkers In sum this is a timely and exciting book It will well serve pastors theologians and thoughtful Christians of many theological perspectives MARK VALERI E T Thompson Professor of Church History Union Theological Seminary Virginia One of the values of this work is that it has deliberately sought not so much to discuss a particular problem or a collection of issues as to identify Torrance as an example of an archetypal Reformed theology of the Eucharist To say that Dr Stamps has been industrious is patently an understatement the truth is that he has been indefatigable in his search for the least morsel that Torrance offers Yet it is not so much as a study of Torrance that this book is to be commended its great value is that it offers a contextualization of Torrance's thinking on the Eucharist in ecclesiology the more general dimension of an incarnational theology as well as his understanding of cosmology and epistemology I hope that Dr Stamps book will not only find grateful readers but will be repaid by profound reflection on this symbol of the heart of faith JOHN HEYWOOD THOMAS Emeritus Professor of Theology University of Nottingham

Marian Poem-Prayers in the Modern Age Jean Ward, 2025-10-16 This book explores a range of twentieth and twenty first century poem prayers directed to or involving Mary In readings of works by T S Eliot David Jones Geoffrey Hill Elizabeth Jennings Hilary Davies Rowan Williams and others Ward traces the resurgence of interest in Mary from the late nineteenth century to the present day By the early twentieth century the once widespread and fervent cult of the Virgin Mary had for more than three hundred years been largely absent from England's religious life Similarly the figure of Mary had almost vanished from English poetry only to return gradually as Marian devotion began to revive in the nineteenth century The perception of this devotion as somehow un-English dominant since the Reformation presented a challenge to poets engaged with the Marian theme in the modern day Marian Poem Prayers in the Modern Age examines how male and female poets from both Roman Catholic and Anglican backgrounds responded to this situation The book also argues that the figure of Mary is a type of John Henry Newman's category of real assent commitment that is not merely intellectual but involves the totality of a person's being in relation to God

Defending Sin Hans Madueme, 2024-05-28 The conflict between the natural sciences and Christian theology has been going on for centuries Recent advances in the fields of evolutionary biology behavioral genetics and neuroscience have intensified this conflict particularly in relation to origins the fall and sin These debates are crucial to our understanding of human sinfulness and necessarily involve the doctrine of salvation Theistic evolutionists have labored hard to resolve these tensions between science and faith but Hans Madueme argues that the majority of their proposals do injustice both to biblical teaching and to long-standing doctrines held by the mainstream Christian tradition In this major contribution to the field of science and religion Madueme demonstrates that the classical notion of sin reflected in Scripture the creeds and tradition offers the most compelling and theologically coherent account of the human condition He answers pressing challenges from the physical sciences on both methodological and substantive levels Scholars pastors students and interested lay readers will profit from interacting with the arguments presented here
