More Towels Grant Jarrett,2002 One of the four younger brothers of a gifted and very successful jazz pianist our less exceptional protagonist begins his peculiar journey of discovery at the age of seventeen leaving his home in Pennsylvania s

Pocono Mountains to travel with a laughably bad self contained show band led by Fred Waring Jr the recovering alcoholic son of a had been bandleader and blender inventor whose limited celebrity dissolved in the nineteen fifties even more swiftly than it materialized in the forties As he travels back and forth across the continent with a series of mostly unremarkable bands bands with names such as Love Peace and Soul and Natural Feelin he encounters a world wherein talent is far less essential than a charming smile and the willingness to wear a ruffled polyester shirt a world wherein getting laid is far more enjoyable and a hell of a lot easier than learning to play his instrument or sustaining a meaningful relationship Beautiful young women and angry husbands litter his voyage there are violent assaults and hilarious confrontations and through it all as he searches desperately for something or someone to believe in rarely finding anything more than a place to put his pee pee he shares his intensely cynical view of himself and the world around him Though far more humorous than many memoirs More Towels is still a serious and often touching coming of age story a story of growth and acceptance and all the battles along the way

Loving Michael Virginia Nolan,2021-09-28 This story begins with the unexpected birth of a Down syndrome baby boy to an unwed couple and tells about the events in his life up to the age of ten It shows a family s courage to deal with the realities of life s happenings Yes we all have special needs The events in this story will challenge the reader s thoughts and cause you to rethink your attitudes and actions in dealing with the unforeseen Baby Michael is unique and his father constantly tries to figure out what s best for his little superman and never gives up As the Bible tells us Seek and ye shall find Loving Michael Everyone Has Special Needs is a life changer for all those who read this story This novel is about loving a child who isn t perfect but is able to alter the lives of those around him The events in the story force us to read on to find out how negatives become positives Accepting the unanticipated is not always easy to do but this story will connect the missing links that lead the way to happiness
