Public Sector Restructuring And Privatisation Including Urban Infrastructure And Public Service Finance:

Public Sector Restructuring and Privatisation Nand Dhameja, Kambhupati Suryanarayana Sastry, 2002 In Indian context

Globalization Biplab Dasgupta, 2005-07-21 This book is a cogent appraisal of India's economic reforms by a prominent Leftist commentator. It first discusses the economic perspectives of various international and multilateral agencies as also of multinational companies. It then analyses the policies affecting and performance of various sectors of the economy: agrarian, industrial, banking and monetary, state-owned enterprises, fiscal, trade, environmental and labour.

The Indian Journal of Public Administration, 2005 Public Services Or Corporate Welfare Dexter Whitfield, 2001-01-20 Explains the need for public ownership and the welfare state in the face of increasing globalization.

APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service, Privatization and Alternative Public Sector Reform in Sub-Saharan Africa K. Bayliss, B.

Fine, 2007-11-12 It is increasingly apparent that the privatization experiment in sub-Saharan Africa has failed. This book shows that the state is set to dominate service delivery for the foreseeable future in much of the region and that the public sector must be considered as a viable policy option for the delivery of water and electricity. Public Problems - Private Solutions? Simon Raiser, 2017-11-30 Cities and city regions are undergoing rapid transformation. They are prime locations of innovation while at the same time facing growing problems of spatial fragmentation and social exclusion. By addressing these problems, cities become forerunners for new patterns of governance which include increasingly private actors. While research on global cities has focused primarily on the world's leading financial and economic centres, comparative research on the changing role of large complex cities in the developing world is less advanced. But it is here where public problems are most seriously threatening the cohesion of urban society and where the need for new answers is most urgent. Illustrated by in-depth examinations of four city regions: Shanghai, Mumbai, Johannesburg and São Paulo, this book readdresses this balance. The book revisits the same set of cities from different angles, thereby reflecting urban contradictions, juxtapositions and disjunctures. Financing Urban Shelter, 2005 Public Sector Enterprises in India P.K. Jain, Seema Gupta, Surendra S.

Yadav, 2014-06-05 The book examines the various aspects of non-financial central public sector enterprises (PSEs) in India for a period from 1986-87 to 2010-11. The analysis is based on all the key financial ratios, namely profitability, efficiency, liquidity, leverage and productivity. Liberalization and globalization have caused competition in India and have lowered the profit margins. At the same time, Indian government has reduced subsidies and budgetary support for PSEs to curtail their own fiscal deficit. Strategic and economic reforms were also introduced in PSEs to make their operations commercially profitable so that they are not dependent on the government to meet their financial requirements on the one hand and have their own earnings to finance their expansion/modernization requirements as well as their social obligations on the other. To what extent the PSEs have succeeded in this objective constitutes one major aspect of the present research work. The other equally important aspect examined is financial performance of the PSEs which have opted for disinvestment and have signed memorandum of understanding MoU self obligations The Indian Government has desired the central PSEs to be profitable in their operations in post liberation era of 1990s For this purpose two major instruments namely disinvestment and MoUs were introduced This book examines in detail financial performance of PSEs which had opted for disinvestment and have signed MoU Based on analysis findings and literature on the subject the book contains some concrete suggestions that would prove extremely helpful to Indian Government to further improve their financial performance Proceedings of the 4th
