Public Service Broadcasting In Transitiona Documentary Reader:

Public Service Broadcasting in Transition Monroe Edwin Price, Marc Raboy, 2003-01-01 Few will deny that public service broadcasting that is controlled neither by the state nor by private media corporations is an essential ingredient in modern democracy But as a number of initiatives in transition economies have shown the inception and development of a strong public broadcasting system is a Herculean task that is easily sidetracked by politics or ideology or stalled by lack of funding Especially when state budgets are stretched the expense is hard to justify This collection of documents comments and cases brings all the major issues in public service broadcasting policy into focus and sets the problems to be addressed in sharp relief It draws on white papers from NGOs and broadcasters legislation from a wide range of countries and a model law accounts of public broadcasting efforts in transition states analyses of evolving policy in established systems government regulatory guidelines and a great deal more Among the matters touched upon are the following the principles of public service broadcasting and their cultural and economic justification limiting state interference the place of public broadcasting in a multi channel market driven world the appropriate mix of public and private revenues objectivity and impartiality in broadcasting how institutional structures can shape programming strategies the use of competition law to adjust relations between public and private broadcasting EU accession standards for public service broadcasting and the impact of digital broadcasting Broadcast professionals students and teachers in communications and related fields government officials interested in strengthening public service broadcasting and keeping pace with rapid developments all will benefit enormously from this thoughtful and informative book It will allow them to think well beyond the standard formulae about the function of public service broadcasting and its role in society From Public Service Broadcasting to Public Service Communications Damian Tambini, Jamie Cowling, 2004

Public Service Broadcasting in the Age of Globalization Indrajit Banerjee, Kalinga Seneviratne, 2006 Takes a scholarly perspective aimed at creating debate about the role and function of public service broadcasting at a time that it is facing a variety of threats from governments and from commercialization of broadcasting This book gives a global perspective on the state of public service broadcasting in the age of globalization

The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy Robin Mansell, Marc Raboy, 2014-03-03 The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy offers insights into the boundaries of this field of study assesses why it is important who is affected and with what political economic social and cultural consequences Provides the most up to date and comprehensive collection of essays from top scholars in the field Includes contributions from western and eastern Europe North and Central America Africa and Asia Offers new conceptual frameworks and new methodologies for mapping the contours of emergent global media and communication policy Draws on theory and empirical research to offer multiple perspectives on the local national regional and global forums in which policy debate occurs

organisations inevitably affects what news we receive everyday But is public or private ownership better Looking at how news is constructed in different contexts under public and commercial models this book uses global comparative examples to give a topical insight into the world of broadcasting today Media Regulation, Public Interest and the Law Mike Feintuck, 2006-07-10 Regulation of the media has traditionally been premised upon claims of the public interest yet the term itself remains contested and generally ill defined In the context of technological development and convergence as well as corporate conglomeration traditional public service values in British broadcasting are challenged by market values With such ongoing trends continuing apace regulators must increasingly justify their interventions The communication industries commercialisation and privatisation pose a fundamental threat to democratic values Media Regulation Public Interest and the Law argues that regulators will only successfully protect such values if claims associated with citizenship are recognised as the rationale and objective for the regulatory endeavour While such themes are central to the book this second edition has been substantially revised and updated to take account of matters such as European Directives the UK's Communications Act 2003 the process of reviewing the BBC's Charter and relevant aspects of the reform of general competition law Key Features Identifies and examines the rationales underlying media regulation and the current challenges to them Considers fully the actual and potential utility of legal mechanisms and principles in the design and activities of regulatory institutions Fully updated to take account of the European Union's 2002 New Regulatory Framework and the UK's Communications Act 2003 Accessible to a wide readership in media studies journalism broadcasting and law Praise for the First Edition A detailed and critical assessment of the problems and confusions of recent media regulation in the UK including digital television franchising and the Broadcasting Complaints Commission it is well organised and should be a useful resource for more advanced students and academics for updating the public regulation case with vigour and clarity this book is to be welcomed THES Transnational Media Suman Mishra, Rebecca Kern-Stone, 2019-04-02 A broad and accessible introduction to national and transnational media Transnational Media Concepts and Cases provides a clear and engaging overview of media communication from a global and a region based perspective Rather than focusing on just complex theories and industry specific analyses this unique book offers an inclusive comparative approach to both journalism and entertainment media introducing readers to the essential concepts systems transnational influences and power dynamics that shape global media flow Broad coverage of different media forms from Asia Africa the Americas Europe and Oceania offers country based and transnational perspectives while highlighting examples of media trends in television radio film journalism social media music and others Promoting a balanced multipolar exploration of transnational media this innovative book discusses topics such as media concentration the cultural political and economic impact of media and the primary centers of new and traditional media activities Chapters organized by geographic region offer instructive pedagogical features including case studies and essays and illustrations maps and charts that strengthen understanding of distinctive and emerging practices in the production distribution and consumption of media products Explores a wide range of global media topics infrastructures cultures and political economic climates Written in an engaging relatable and easy to understand style Covers major aspects of journalism and various forms of entertainment media Organized by regions of the world to reflect a global perspective Includes newly written case studies by international scholars from each region Designed for undergraduate and graduate courses in comparative media analysis international media and communication and related areas of study Transnational Media Concepts and Cases is an indispensable resource for colleges and universities that are internationalizing their curriculum to meet the needs of an increasing globalized world

Television Courtroom Broadcasting Effects Paul Lambert, 2013-07-05 Court and policy makers have increasingly had to deal with and sometimes even embrace technology from podcasts to the Internet Televised courtroom broadcasting especially remains an issue The debate surrounding the US Supreme Court and federal courts as well as the great disparity between different forms of television courtroom broadcasting rages on What are the effects of television courtroom broadcasting Does research support the arguments for or against Despite three Supreme Court cases on television courtroom broadcasting the common thread between the cases has not been highlighted The Supreme Court in these cases maintains a common theme there is not a sufficient body of research on the effects of televising courtroom proceedings to resolve the debate in a confident manner

Approaching Historical Sources in their Contexts Sarah Barber, Corinna M. Peniston-Bird, 2020-04-13 In Approaching Historical Sources in Their Contexts 12 academics examine how space time and performance interact to co create context for source analysis The chapters cover 2000 years and stretch across the Americas and Europe They are grouped into three themes with the first four exploring aspects of movement within and around an environment buildings the tension between habitat and tourist landscape cemeteries and war memorials Three chapters look at different aspects of performance masque and opera in which performance is re constructed from several media radio and television The final group of chapters consider objects and material culture in which both spatial placement and performance influence how they might be read as historical sources archaeological finds and their digital management the display of objects in heritage locations clothing photograph albums and scrapbooks Supported by a range of case studies the contributors embed lessons and methodological approaches within their chapters that can be adapted and adopted by those working with similar sources offering students both a theoretical and practical demonstration of how to analyse sources within their contexts Drawing out common threads to help those wishing to illuminate their own historical investigation this book encourages a broad and inclusive approach to the physical and social contexts of historical evidence for those undertaking source analysis

News as Entertainment Daya Kishan Thussu, 2008-01-09 Thussu brings to this project the passion for news of a socially committed former journalist the political economy of his international relations education and a formidable assembly of global detail examining the recent explosion of infotainment John Downing Southern Illinois University Thussu s account of war as infotainment the Bollywoodization of news and the emergence of a global infotainment sphere is as compelling as it is alarming This is a significant and essential book for anyone interested in exploring the connections between news journalism informed citizenship and democracy Bob Franklin The Cardiff School of Journalism Media and Cultural Studies Richly detailed and empirically grounded this first book length study of infotainment and its globalization by a leading scholar of global communication offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of this emerging phenomenon Going beyond both geographically and theoretically the dumbing down discourse largely confined to the Anglo American media the book argues that infotainment may have an important ideological role a diversion in which soft news masks the hard realities of neo liberal imperialism Chapters include a historical appraisal of infotainment the infrastructure for its globalization as well as coverage of recent wars on television news as high tech infotainment and the growing synergies between Hollywood and Bollywood originated infotainment A global infotainment sphere is emerging the book argues within which competing versions of news from 24 7 news networks to bloggers coexist Accessible engagingly written and robustly argued the book combines analyses of theoretical debates on infotainment with extensive and up to date comparative data New Technologies in Developing Societies L. Obijiofor,2015-05-19 New technologies may have transformed human societies but not much has been written on how they are impacting people in Africa and other developing regions in terms of how they use technology to enhance their socioeconomic conditions in everyday life This book critically examines these issues from theoretical practical and policy perspectives A Critical Account of Article 106(2) TFEU Jarleth Burke,2018-03-22 A Critical Account of Article 106 2 TFEU Government Failure in Public Service Provision offers a sceptical perspective on how EU law applies to public services Article 106 2 provides that other Treaty rules may be disapplied in order to sustain a Service of General Economic Interest SGEI The rhetorical presentation of Article 106 2 is as a strict exception As a result Article 106 2 is often presented as a threat to Europe s public service tradition This book challenges those shibboleths by using the concept of government failure It is concerned with instances of government intervention that are unnecessary generate avoidable inefficiencies or that can be bettered so as to realise general interest goals more efficaciously As an element of the government failure critique a market feasibility test incorporating the concept of market failure is used to expose laxity in the review of general interests under Article 106 2 Complementing that the process of disapplying other Treaty rules under Article 106 2 is shown to have evolved from being strict to being highly indulgent of SGEI providers with a relatively recent but only partial correction post Altmark Overall the strict exception label for Article 106 2 does not hold Moreover it is contingent and presents no legitimate general interest related threat to the organisation and delivery of public services A comprehensive re orientation of Article 106 2 on issues of proof is required as is greater reliance on market counterfactuals and much more careful separation of objectives and means in SGEI operation and design Through these measures the toleration of government failure can be stemmed and Article 106 2 s contingency reduced Sound Matters Richard L Beeston BA,2024-02-13 This book has been written to assist
