Executive Summary

The current situation with the extent of workforce aging in the UK has become a troubling tendency. While the range of staff members that have approached the category of aging employees has risen, the number of younger employees has been shrinking. The phenomenon of aging workforce can be attributed to numerous factors, yet it leads to the same problem of the quality of UK's economic performance dropping constantly. Therefore, a policy that would help to galvanize organizational performance, at the same time taking the health needs of the aging employees into consideration, is needed desperately.

The integration of business investment strategies that will help to invest in the further training and development of employees alongside with the tools for increasing the extent of opportunities for talent management and the introduction of incentives for staff members. The specified measure will help to increase the performance across the UK organizations in every industry, at the same time paying due attention to the needs and requirements of employees that are experiencing health issues due to their age. The policy designed to improving productivity growth are expected to lead to tangible positive changes in the current UK economy, affecting the situation positively.

There are several options to managing the issue at hand. Apart from the enhancement of the employee engagement rates through the introduction of incentives, one should also consider the strategies aimed at creating better workplace conditions and offering effective healthcare
