Decrypting Power Ricardo Sanín-Restrepo, 2020-05-19 Decrypting Power aims to reach a unifying concept that allows the connection of the fundamental theses stemming from critical legal studies Subaltern studies decolonization law and society global political economy critical geopolitics and theories of decoloniality This volume proposes that this concept is the encryption of power a category of analysis that reveals the weakness of political liberalism when it takes the place of the legitimate fundament of democracy as well as its consummate capacity to conceal new mechanisms of global power The theory of encryption of power understands that there is only a world where difference exists as the fundamental and sole order but also that such a possibility is heavily obstructed by the concentration of power in forms of oppression The world hangs on the thread of this entangled reality made up of difference and its denial of democracy and its simulations of truth and its codifications The decryption of power is then above all a theory of justice essential to radical democracy which comes fully equipped to prevail over the conditions that deny the possibility of an egalitarian world

Secret Manipulations Anne Storch, 2011-09-02 Secret Manipulations is the first comprehensive study of African register variation polylectality and derived languages Focusing on a specific form of language change deliberate manipulations of a language by its speakers it provides a new approach to local language ideologies and concepts of grammar and metalinguistic knowledge Anne Storch concentrates on case studies from Nigeria Uganda Sudan the African diaspora and 16th century Europe In these cases language manipulation varies with social and cultural contexts and is almost always done in secret At the same time this manipulation can be an act of subversion and an expression of power and it is often central to the construction of social norms as it constructs oppositions and gives marginalized people a chance to articulate themselves This volume illustrates how manipulated languages are constructed how they are used and how they wield power

The Torture Letters Laurence Ralph, 2020-01-15 Torture is an open secret in Chicago Nobody in power wants to acknowledge this grim reality but everyone knows it happens and that the torturers are the police Three to five new claims are submitted to the Torture Inquiry and Relief Commission of Illinois each week Four hundred cases are currently pending investigation Between 1972 and 1991 at least 125 black suspects were tortured by Chicago police officers working under former Police Commander Jon Burge As the more recent revelations from the Homan Square black site show that brutal period is far from a historical anomaly For more than fifty years police officers who took an oath to protect and serve have instead beaten electrocuted suffocated and raped hundreds perhaps thousands of Chicago residents In The Torture Letters Laurence Ralph chronicles the history of torture in Chicago the burgeoning activist movement against police violence and the American public s complicity in perpetuating torture at home and abroad Engaging with a long tradition of epistolary meditations on racism in the United States from James Baldwin s The Fire Next Time to Ta Nehisi Coates s Between the World and Me Ralph offers in this book a collection of open letters written to protesters victims students and others Through these moving questing enraged letters Ralph bears witness to police violence that began in Burge s Area Two and follows the city s networks of torture to the global War on Terror From Vietnam to Geneva to Guantanamo Bay Ralph s story extends as far as the legacy of American imperialism Combining insights from fourteen years of research on torture with testimonies of victims of police violence retired officers lawyers and protesters this is a powerful indictment of police violence and a fierce challenge to all Americans to demand an end to the systems that support it With compassion and careful skill Ralph uncovers the tangled connections among law enforcement the political machine and the courts in Chicago amplifying the voices of torture victims who are still with us and lending a voice to those long deceased Spirited Things Paul Christopher Johnson,2014-05-07 The word possession is anything but transparent especially as it developed in the context of the African Americas There it referred variously to spirits material goods and people It served as a watershed term marking both transactions in which people were made into things via slavery and ritual events by which the thingification of people was revised In Spirited Things Paul Christopher Johnson gathers together essays by leading anthropologists in the Americas that reopen the concept of possession on these two fronts in order to examine the relationship between African religions in the Atlantic and the economies that have historically shaped and continue to shape the cultures that practice them Exploring the way spirit possessions were framed both by material things including plantations the Catholic church the sea and the phonograph as well as by the legacy of slavery they offer a powerful new way of understanding the Atlantic world The Spectral Wound Nayanika Mookherjee,2015-10-23 Following the 1971 Bangladesh War the Bangladesh government publicly designated the thousands of women raped by the Pakistani military and their local collaborators as birangonas brave women Nayanika Mookherjee demonstrates that while this celebration of birangonas as heroes keeps them in the public memory they exist in the public consciousness as what Mookherjee calls a spectral wound Dominant representations of birangonas as dehumanized victims with disheveled hair a vacant look and rejected by their communities create this wound the effects of which flatten the diversity of their experiences through which birangonas have lived with the violence of wartime rape In critically examining the pervasiveness of the birangona construction Mookherjee opens the possibility for a more politico economic ethical and nuanced inquiry into the sexuality of war Public Key Cryptography -- PKC 2011 Dario Catalano,Nelly Fazio,Rosario Gennaro,Antonio Nicolosi,2011-02-28 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Practice and Theory in Public Key Cryptography PKC 2011 held in Taormina Italy in March 2011 The 28 papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 103 submissions The book also contains one invited talk The papers are grouped in topical sections on signatures attribute based encryption number theory protocols chosen ciphertext security encryption zero knowledge and cryptanalysis Sexuality and Public Space in India Carmel Christy,2017-03-16 The topic of sexuality and gender within the South Asian context is timely and widely discussed across a variety of academic disciplines Since the end of the last century there have been debates in the cultural sphere in India on issues concerning Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender people s rights gender sex workers rights and caste There has also been an explicit visibility for sexuality in the form of discussion around intimate scenes in films advertisements and moral concerns around pre marital heterosexual relationships and same sex relationships This book brings out the modalities through which explicit visibility of sexuality gets constituted in the public space of India after the 1990s The specificities through which relations of gender sexuality and caste get constituted and performed in regional media provide significant entry points to an understanding of larger structures and the ever present fissures through which these larger structures emerge Focussing on the southern state of Kerala the book investigates women s sexuality and caste through a number of case studies the Suryanelli rape case neology in the media and the debates around the life narratives of Nalini Jameela a sex worker The book does not stop at representational practices as it also looks at the negotiations between the subject and her represented figures which is a significant addition to the existing body of work in the field of media and gender studies Sexuality and Public Space in India is a careful interrogation of the mass mediatized space of contemporary public discourse around sexuality It will be of interest to academics in South Asian Studies Sociology Anthropology and Gender Studies The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Secrecy Hugh B. Urban,Paul Christopher
