Frederick Starr,2016-07-22 This handbook is designed to help researchers journalists students and business people to locate the rich array of Washington institutions and organizations that focus on issues pertaining to Central Asia and the Caucasus region

particularly in the post Soviet period Washington's status as a major repository of documentation on every aspect of the region is strong and growing daily Beyond the Library of Congress which intensively collects newspapers and other published materials from the region and the Foreign Broadcast Information Service which does the same for radio there are hundreds of national and international public non profit and private organizations and institutions in Washington with extensive links to Central Asia and the Caucasus all of which maintain active archives and collections The Guide includes more than 270 entries It describes the structure and scholarly and technical resources of libraries archives and manuscript repositories museums and galleries collections of sound and visual recordings map and film collections and the holdings of research centers and information agencies Academic programs and departments of the metropolitan area's many institutions of higher learning are covered along with international organizations U S and foreign government agencies association and advocacy groups scientific organizations educational and cultural organizations corporations technical assistance organizations religious organizations publications and media operations bookstores and online resources An index of organizations and institutions enhances the Guide's usefulness

Climate Governance in International and Comparative Perspective Peter F. Haruna, Laila El Baradei, Liza van Jaarsveldt, Abraham D. Benavides, Cristina M. Stanica, 2024-05-01 This book pulls literature together to examine the quality of climate governance based in the experience of Global South regions Africa Latin America and Caribbean While these regions are resilient the IPCC 2022 Report indicates that the effects of climate change are crippling their thinly structured governance systems and limited capacities For example in addition to environmental devastation loss of life and livelihoods these regions have endured most of the loss and damage due to climate change impacts How are they responding What are the outcomes And where do they go from here Given this background the book's goal is to question assumptions about climate governance patterns systems institutions and processes in these regions using comparative analytical techniques while distilling information about policy outcomes that other approaches do not provide It argues that these regions and individual countries within them have a lot to learn from and about each other rather than look to the Global North and wealthy countries for economic political and administrative models that hardly match their lived experience and ontological outlooks In doing so it aspires to promote a fruitful South South policy related dialogue via scholarly exchanges and also contribute to advance the study and practice of international and comparative public administration From this perspective scholars researchers educators public managers and practitioners will find the book relevant to and useful for their respective endeavors
