Ash and Ruin Nicholas Taylor, 2025-03-20 They march for conquest They fight for survival But war answers to no one Blood turns the ground to mud Smoke blots out the sky The war drums of Lysandrian echo across a world on the edge of conquest For generations the Ulfgarath have raided the frontier carving their names into legend with steel and fire But now the empire marches not for retribution but for annihilation Trapped in the storm are those who wield power unlike any other the Essaerists rare magic bearers who shape reality itself creatures born from will weapons forged from nothing Some fight for Lysandrian others for survival all caught in the ruthless march of history But war is never what the stories tell you Glory twists into ruin Honor is a fleeting thing And when the dust settles only one truth remains nothing is ever created without cost The invasion has begun The old world is burning And what rises from the ashes may never be the same behaviour and ecology of wild felids to draw together a unique network of the world's most respected and knowledgeable experts. Beginning with a complete account of all 36 felid species, there follow 8 comprehensive review chapters that span all the topics most relevant to felid conservation science, including evolution and systematics, felid form and function, genetic applications, behavioural ecology, management of species that come into conflict with people, and control of international trade in felid species. Conservation tools, techniques, ex situ management, and felid diseases. 19 detailed case studies then delve deeply into syntheses of the very best species investigations worldwide, written by all the leading figures in the field. These chapters portray the unique attributes of the wild felids, describe their fascinating and conflicting relationship with humans, and create an unparalleled platform for future research and conservation measures. The Storyteller Mario Vargas Llosa, 2011-03-04 At a small gallery in Florence, a Peruvian writer happens upon a photograph of a tribal storyteller deep in the jungles of the Amazon. He is overcome with the eerie sense that he knows this man, that the storyteller is not an Indian at all, but an old school friend, Saul Zuratas. As recollections of Zuratas flow through his mind, the writer begins to imagine Zuratas's transformation from a modern to a central member of the unacculturated Machiguenga tribe. Weaving the mysteries of identity, storytelling, and truth, Vargas Llosa has created a spellbinding tale of one man's journey from the modern world to our origins, abandoning one in order to find meaning in both.
