The Marriage between Perfume and the Lyric Stage Mary May Robertson,2023-09-22 But what is this scent of balmy air What this ray of light in my tomb I seem to see an angel amid a scent of roses sings Florestan in Fidelio Beethoven s only opera The role of scents smells fragrances and odours in opera has long been neglected just as how much opera and its stars have influenced the world of perfumery from the nineteenth century to the present day In the first book length study on the topic Professor Mary May

Robertson explores the relationship between opera perfumes and their respective protagonists in order to map out the previously undiscussed connection between the two Through compelling close readings of librettos and rigorous research through thousands of bottles of perfume the reader will come to appreciate and recognise the influences and exchanges between operas and perfumes and their ultimate marriage in the previously unrecognised genre of Operatic Perfumes which is to say perfumes named after operas composers and their divas

The Scent Trail Celia Lyttelton,2009-02-03 A unique travel memoir The Scent Trail charts a woman s journey as she explores the magic and history behind the ingredients of her own bespoke perfume When Celia Lyttelton visits a bespoke perfumer in London she enters the heady and exotic world of scent On a London backstreet she is transported to a world made up of thousands of oils unguents and balms all hidden away in an old Chinese medicine chest And so begins Celia s remarkable quest to discover the origin history and culture of the many ingredients that make up her unique custom made perfume It is a quest that will take her from Tuscany to Morocco from Sri Lanka to Tibet from the peasants and farmers growing their own crops and the traders who sell to the perfume houses to the noses who create the scents and the marketing kings involved in this billion dollar industry As Celia explores the mythology history and culture behind ingredients such as jasmine nutmeg musk and ambergris she paints a vivid portrait of this mysterious sensual world conjuring up the people she has met and the places she has visited on her scent trail
