Puritan Papers 1960 1962:

Puritan Papers: 1960-1962 David Martyn Lloyd-Jones, 2000 Puritan Papers James Innell Packer, 2001 Puritan Papers James Innell Packer, 2001 The Foundation of Joy Jeff Strickland, 2025-04-21 The Puritans have been depicted as killjoys whose teachings on assurance of salvation and self examination bred anxiety and despair But is that really the case In The Foundation of Joy Jeff Strickland investigates the link between John Flavel's understanding of assurance and his pursuit of joy After explaining Flavel's approach to assurance and how it actually provides a foundation for joy Strickland demonstrates how Flavel expresses these in the key areas of looking to Christ discerning the Spirit obeying the law keeping the heart and carrying the cross Joy is the hallmark of Flavel's spirituality a fine example of what it means to cultivate a cheerfulness of heart founded on a sense of one s interest in Christ Puritan Papers James Innell Packer, 2004 Religious Formation of John Witherspoon Kevin DeYoung, 2020-02-05 This book explores in unprecedented detail the theological thinking of John Witherspoon during his often overlooked ministerial career in Scotland In contrast to the arguments made by other historians it shows that there was considerable continuity of thought between Witherspoon s Scottish ministry and the second half of his career as one of America's Founding Fathers The book argues that Witherspoon cannot be properly understood until he is seen as not only engaged with the Enlightenment but also firmly grounded in the Calvinist tradition of High to Late Orthodoxy embedded in the transatlantic Evangelical Awakening of the eighteenth century and frustrated by the state of religion in the Scottish Kirk Alongside the titles of pastor president educator philosopher should be a new category John Witherspoon as Reformed apologist This is a fresh re examination of the intellectual formation of one of Scotland's most important churchman from the eighteenth century and one of America's most influential early figures The volume will be of keen interest to academics working in Religious History American Religion Reformed Theology and Calvinism as well as Scottish and American history more generally Toward a Priestly Christology Adriani Milli Rodrigues, 2018-11-02 Toward a Priestly Christology is a constructive theology on the person and work of Christ from the standpoint of a systematic thinking about his priesthood This priesthood is usually discussed in biblical scholarship on the Christology of Hebrews and also explored in historical or systematic theology with its connections with soteriology and ecclesiology However there is a scarcity of studies that attempt to systematize this topic in its basic components and their ontological foundations in order to provide conceptual clarity for a constructive discussion of the priestly Christology in systematic theology The book makes a contribution to this discussion by engaging firstly with the main models of Christ's priesthood in Christian theology and then with a theological reading of the letter to the Hebrews In both steps the author conceptually articulates the priesthood in terms of need agent actions and goal Then he observes the conceptual articulation from the macro hermeneutical point of view of ontology especially noticing how assumptions on time and space impact the internal logic of Christ's priesthood By using existing models of this priesthood as heuristic tools for systematic thinking the work attempts to push Christian theology toward a more dynamic understanding of Christ's priesthood especially regarding the relationship between the ascended Christ and our Christian life Theandric and Triune Ty Kieser, 2024-01-25 Describing Jesus as an agent of divine actions or as one who possesses human agency is commonplace in christological discussions Yet these discussions often wade in a shallow understanding of the terms meanings and the theological implications of such claims For example while many theologians who are committed to the definition of Chalcedon consider Jesus one agent we might ask if this implies that the triune God comprises three agents Or if Christ possesses singular agency how are his divinity and humanity operative in his actions In response this work draws from the theology of John Owen and advancements in philosophy of action in order to offer an account of divine and human agency in christological action from within the Reformed tradition It provides clarity to the christological and trinitarian uses of the language of agent agency in Christ and attends to the theological esp trinitarian entailments therein While at first glance there may appear to be internal inconsistencies with accounts that subscribe to classical trinitarianism and Reformed Christological agency this book argues that Owen helps us recover an understanding of christological agency that is internally coherent and theologically prudent As such the Reformed tradition can articulate Christological agency in a way that is coherent with the testimony of Scripture the ecumenical councils and classical trinitarianism while contributing to contemporary theological discussions The case not only provides terminological clarity and theological coherence but also inclines Christians to appreciate the trinitarian love of God in Christ's action and the human sympathy of Christ for his people Preaching Joel Beeke, 2018-10-15 Preaching today all too often tragically misses the point We ve all heard sermons that sound more like a lecture filling the head but not the heart And we ve all heard sermons tailored to produce an emotional experience filling the heart but not the head But biblical preaching both informs minds and engages hearts giving it the power to transform lives By the Spirit's grace biblical preaching brings truth home from the heart of the preacher to the heart of the hearer Joel Beeke a pastor and professor of preaching with over four decades of experience explores the fundamental principles of Reformed experiential preaching examining sermons by preachers from the past and bridging the historical gap by showing pastors what the preaching of God's life transforming truth looks like today The Essays and Public Lectures of John Carrick John Carrick, 2024-07-22 This book is a collection of miscellaneous essays and lectures published or given publicly by the author over the course of forty years All of the lectures were given on special occasions the details of which are stated at the head of the lecture in question One of the lectures Evangelicals and the Oxford Movement was given as the Evangelical Library Lecture of 1983 one of the essays Jonathan Edwards and the Deists won first prize in the Evangelical Library Essay Competition of 1987 and was published in the Banner of Truth Magazine in 1988 four of the lectures The Holy Spirit and Revival Redemptive Historical Preaching A Critique The Glory of Creation and The Exclusiveness of Christ were given at the annual conferences of Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary one of the lectures Edwards
