A Full-Hearted Life Jake Owensby, 2024-12-03 Meaningful answers for life's big questions Everyone must ask life's big questions Even people who reject any hint of the supernatural and insist that nothing exists apart from matter will have to find meaning for themselves To put this another way the defining mark of our secular age is not the absence of belief but rather the effect on our consciousness of the sheer number of competing belief systems That effect is fragilization And so belief is fragile We don't have to believe what we believe We could believe something else entirely This book articulates how believing in Jesus gives us a sense of who we are why we're here what the good life is and how to move toward that good life This is not traditional apologetics offering logical proofs that God exists or that Jesus is God incarnate or that all those alternative belief systems are false Put simply the aim of this book is to help you see for yourself and to explain to others how Christian belief and Christian practice can make life meaningful If you want to know what it looks and feels like to be a Christian read this book If as a Christian you could use a little encouragement look no further The Rt Rev Mariann Edgar Budde Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington DC author of How We Learn to Be Brave Decisive Moments in Life and Faith

The Secular as Methodology Robert L. Montgomery, 2018-08-14 Secularization is a process that has been taking place throughout the world but especially in the West It refers to limitations of various types to religious thoughts activities ownership and power but does not necessarily mean limitation on religious freedom Because of this contested double effect secularization is perceived both negatively and positively I propose that the secular be viewed primarily as a methodology in various areas of life beginning most clearly with science but extending to many other areas of thought and activity When this is done I believe people then have the clear option to apply their faith to all of their thought and action and at the same time to allow for correction and improvement to their thought and action These corrections and improvements will be debated but in the end for Christians they are dependent on interpretations of the Bible Furthermore I believe the broad result for all people is to clarify the choice to believe in God or rather that we are chosen by God revealed in the Bible who is seeking to have fellowship with us
