Pursuing Justice And Peace In South Africa:

Pursuing Justice and Peace in South Africa Hendrik W. van der Merwe, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1989 and written by a long time peacemaker who commanded respect from most political camps in South Africa this book advocated constructive intervention in the South African conflict It showed the growing element of pragmatic flexibility in the white leadership and argued that this more rational approach combined with moral reform among the white population promised reasonable prospects for the constructive accommodation of conflict in South Africa In 1984 the author arranged the first meetings between government supporters and the ANC in exile in Lusaka breaking a 24 year deadlock and significantly influencing public opinion in South Africa

Pursuing Justice in Africa Jessica Johnson, George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2018-10-31 Pursuing Justice in Africa focuses on the many actors pursuing many visions of justice across the African continent their aspirations divergent practices and articulations of international and vernacular idioms of justice The essays selected by editors Jessica Johnson and George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane engage with topics at the cutting edge of contemporary scholarship across a wide range of disciplines These include activism and tenure international legal institutions and postconflict reconciliation Building on recent work in sociolegal studies that foregrounds justice over and above concepts such as human rights and legal pluralism the contributors grapple with alternative approaches to the concept of justice and its relationships with law morality and rights While the chapters are grounded in local experiences they also attend to the ways in which national and international actors and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest Contributors Felicitas Becker Jonathon L Earle Patrick Hoenig Stacey Hynd Fred Nyongesa Ikanda Ngeyi Ruth Kanyongolo Anna Macdonald Bernadette Malunga Alan Msosa Benson A Mulemi Holly Porter Duncan Scott Olaf Zenker

Religion Seeking Justice and Peace (Penerbit USM) Chandra Muzaffar, 2010 Religion Seeking Justice and Peace not only highlights the values that the different religions share in their pursuit of justice and peace but also provides concrete examples of how individuals and institutions from different religious backgrounds have worked for justice and peace throughout history The book also exposes the danger of religious extremism religious exclusivism and other such negative traits to the struggle for justice and peace It takes cognisance of the impact of the larger environment upon religious ideals and at the same time makes a plea for the application of universal values and principles embodied in the various religions to politics Economics culture and society This is particularly important some of the contributors argue at a time like this when humanity is confronted with multiple global crises

Injustice, Violence and Peace Hennie P. P. Lötter, 1997 This book argues that the secret to the political miracle achieved in South Africa is a comprehensive change in the conception of justice as guiding political institutions Pursuing justice is a moral imperative that has practical value as a cost efficient way of dealing with conflict This case study in applied ethics and social theory patiently explains how justice in the new South Africa restores humanity and establishes lasting peace whereas injustice in apartheid South Africa led to conflict and dehumanization      A Handbook of International Peacebuilding John Paul Lederach, Janice Moomaw Jenner, 2002-10-10 This much needed handbook offers conflict resolution professionals working or planning to work in foreign countries a critical step by step guide for dealing with difficult and potentially dangerous disputes in other nations The editors John Paul Lederach and Janice Moomaw Jenner have gathered a stellar panel of seasoned experts who illustrate how to approach international peacebuilding with effective actions and approaches gained through experience that will contribute ultimately to a more positive outcome Based on the experience of the contributors work as global peace brokers the book includes a wide array of guidelines pragmatic approaches and models of constructive culturally appropriate ways to respond to conflict

Guide to Specialists United States Institute of Peace,      Injustice, Violence, and Peace H.P.P. (Hennie) Lötter, 2021-11-01 This book argues that the secret to the political miracle achieved in South Africa is a comprehensive change in the conception of justice as guiding political institutions Pursuing justice is a moral imperative that has practical value as a cost efficient way of dealing with conflict This case study in applied ethics and social theory patiently explains how justice in the new South Africa restores humanity and establishes lasting peace whereas injustice in apartheid South Africa led to conflict and dehumanization      Leaving the shadow of Pain. A cross-cultural exploration of truth, forgiveness, reconciliation and healing Doris H. Gray, 2020-08-21 In this small volume Doris H Gray shares her reflections on human responses to trauma especially when it is kept secret and on attempts at healing that transcend boundaries She offers insights on how individuals recover from trauma in particular when official procedures for redress and professional help are not available She challenges conventional notions of forgiveness and reconciliation which often put the pressure on victims to move forward Most of all Gray finds that victims efforts to come to terms with trauma are not disconnected but are related across time culture religion and geography Part of this book narrates Gray s personal experiences of growing up with her father who was a Holocaust survivor the sudden death of her oldest child her own rape and soon thereafter the death of her husband She describes how these events shaped her scholarly research especially that on women who were victims of torture and extreme discrimination during the Tunisian dictatorship of Zine El Abidine Ben Ali 1989 2011 It is the sum of these experiences that lays the foundation for this brave book Dr Doris H Gray was Director of the Hillary Clinton Center for Women s Empowerment at Al Akhawayn University in Ifrane Morocco where she also served as Professor of Women and Gender Studies Before moving to Morocco she taught in the Gender Studies Program and the Department of Modern Languages at Florida State University in Tallahassee Florida USA Her research focuses on gender and women s rights and transitional justice in Tunisia Morocco and Algeria She has previously published three books      Leashing the Dogs of War Chester A Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, 2007 The definitive volume on the sources of contemporary conflict and the array of possible responses to it      Overcoming Intractable Conflicts Miriam F. Elman,, Catherine Gerard,, Galia Golan, Louis

Kriesberg, 2019-09-26 Despite considerable progress in research and practice in the constructive transformation of intractable conflicts beginning in the 1970s many terribly destructive conflicts have recently erupted New circumstances have emerged that have resulted in regressions The contributions in this book examine many of the new challenges and obstacles to the transformation of intractable conflicts It also offers an array of new and promising opportunities for constructive transformations The book brings together analyses of U S based conflicts with those from many regions of the world International intra state and local conflicts are explored along with those that have been violent and non violent The diversity in disciplines among the authors provides a wide range of theoretical approaches to explaining how a variety of intractable conflicts can be transformed Case studies of local national and transnational conflicts serve to illustrate this new landscape These analyses are complemented by conceptual discussions relating to new conflict systems actors dynamics and strategies Policy implications of findings are also presented Routledge Companion to Peace and Conflict Studies Sean Byrne, Thomas Matyók, Imani Michelle Scott, Jessica Senehi, 2019-07-24 This Companion examines contemporary challenges in Peace and Conflict Studies PACS and offers practical solutions to these problems Bringing together chapters from new and established global scholars the volume explores and critiques the foundations of Peace and Conflict Studies in an effort to advance the discipline in light of contemporary local and global actors The book examines the following eight specific components of Peace and Conflict Studies Peace and conflict studies praxis Structure agency tension as it relates to social justice nonviolence and relationship building Gender masculinity and sexuality The role of partnerships and allies in racial ethnic and religious peacebuilding Culture and identity Critical and emancipatory peacebuilding International conflict transformation and peacebuilding Global responses to conflict It argues that new critical and emancipatory peacebuilding and conflict transformation strategies are needed to address the complex cultural economic political and social conflicts of the 21st century This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies peace studies conflict resolution transitional justice reconciliation studies social justice studies and international relations Different Approaches to Peace and Conflict Research Robert C. Hudson, Hans-Joachim Heintze, 2008-01-01 The articles collected in this volume reflect a range of analyses of the different approaches to Peace and Conflict research Whilst it is obvious that there can never be any easy answers to any of these challenges it is nevertheless encouraging that so many young academics from several parts of the world should come together in Venice San Nic lo Monastery Lido September 2006 under the aegis of the EDEN Network to discuss their interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary work Critical Perspectives on the Responsibility to Protect Philip Cunliffe, 2011-03-31 This edited volume critically examines the widely supported doctrine of the Responsibility to Protect and investigates the claim that it embodies progressive values in international politics Since the United Nations World Summit of 2005 a remarkable consensus has emerged in support of the doctrine of the responsibility to protect R2P the idea that states and the international community bear a joint duty to protect peoples around the world from mass atrocities While there has been plenty of discussion over how this doctrine can best be implemented there has been no systematic criticism of the principles underlying R2P This volume is the first critically to interrogate both the theoretical principles and the policy consequences of this doctrine The authors in this collection argue that the doctrine of R2P does not in fact embody progressive values and they explore the possibility that the R2P may undermine political accountability within states and international peace between them This volume not only advances a novel set of arguments but will also spur debate by offering views that are seldom heard in discussions of R2P The aim of the volume is to bring a range of criticisms to bear from a variety of disciplinary perspectives including international law political science IR theory and security studies This book will be of much interest to students of the Responsibility to Protect humanitarian intervention human security critical security studies and IR in general

Peacemaking in International Conflict I. William Zartman, 2007 This updated and expanded edition of the highly popular volume originally published in 1997 describes the tools and skills of peacemaking that are currently available and critically assesses their usefulness and limitations

What Price Is Peace? Reverend Robert Christopher Wade, D.Min., 2025-05-29 Peace is a universal aspiration but what does it truly cost to achieve In What Price Is Peace The Hidden Cost of Achieving Harmony Sacrifice author Your Name delves into the complex often uncomfortable truths behind the pursuit of harmony whether on a global scale in our communities or within ourselves Drawing from history philosophy and deep personal stories this book explores the sacrifices that underpin every peace agreement the compromises that often come at the expense of justice and the emotional toll borne by those who fight for a better world From the battlefield to the negotiation table from strained family relationships to personal inner struggles What Price Is Peace unpacks the trade offs that are often overlooked in the quest for unity Through compelling examples and thought provoking analysis this book challenges readers to rethink the meaning of peace not as a destination but as a fragile balance sustained by courage resilience and difficult choices If you have ever questioned whether peace can truly last or wondered about the sacrifices required to build it this book will inspire challenge and deepen your understanding of one of humanity's most enduring goals Perfect for readers of social commentary ethics and personal development What Price Is Peace offers a profound look at the hidden costs of harmony and why the fight is worth it

Complex Political Victims Erica Bouris, 2007 Reframes major events like South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Holocaust and the war in Bosnia to take into account the complex victim Calls for a more effective and encompassing support of all types of victims especially those not typically recognized as such Images of the political victim are powerful gripping and integral in helping us make sense of conflict particularly in making moral calculations determining who is good and who is evil These images and the discourse of victimization that surrounds them inform the international community when deciding to recognize certain individuals as victims and play a role in shaping response policies These policies in turn create the potential for long term stable peace after episodes of political victimization Bouris finds weighty problems with this dichotomous conception of actors in a conflict which pervades much of contemporary peacebuilding scholarship She instead argues that victims much like the conflicts themselves are complex Rather than use this complexity as a way to dismiss victims or call for limits on the response from the international community the book advocates for greater and more effective responses to conflict      Conflict Resolution Ho-Won Jeong,2018-08-20 First published in 1999 this volume examines ways in which adversarial relationships can be transformed and reconciled in diverse settings It is intended to enhance our understanding of the nature of structural transformation as well as the processes for changing psychological relations between adversaries Conflict resolution is ingrained in the analysis of inter group dynamics as well as the process and outcome of negotiating different values and incompatible interests The Contributors to the volume include Christopher Mitchell Tarja V yrynen Ronald J Fisher Louis Kriesberg Malvern Lumsden E Franklin Dukes and Richard E Rubenstein      Conflict Transformation and Peacebuilding Bruce W. Dayton,Louis Kriesberg,2009-02-11 This book fills a gap in our understanding of the forces that lead to moderation and constructive engagement in the context of violent intrastate conflicts      Constructive Conflicts Louis Kriesberg,2007 Highly regarded by instructors as the most comprehensive and insightful textbook on conflict resolution Constructive Conflicts has been significantly revised and updated in this third edition The new edition builds on the strengths of the first two especially its organization around the different stages at which conflicts emerge escalate and resolve Kriesberg s analysis utilizes diverse theoretical perspectives and data and is relevant for strategies that a variety of people can employ to foster the resolution of conflicts
