Riding The Desert Trail By Bicycle To The Source Of The Nile:

Travel Writing and Re-Enactment Lucas Tromly, 2023-09-07 Travel Writing and Re Enactment Echotourism explores the popular subgenre of travel narratives that re enact historically prominent journeys Drawing on philosopher Walter Benjamin this monograph reads such re enactments as quests for aura in which travellers seek to capture a sense of distinction and historical profundity Travel Writing and Re Enactment frames the re enactment of past journeys in a number of contexts including Benjamin s writing on mechanical reproduction Judith Butler s work on gender performance and postmodern parody Echotourist journeys are surprisingly contingent and precarious and force travellers to navigate historical changes involving empire gender and travel practice in densely performative ways Through close readings of contemporary travel narratives this monograph considers the legacies of Lord Byron Charles Darwin Graham Greene Mary Kingsley and Ernest Shackleton among others Travel Writing and Re Enactment examines the way literary re enactment expresses and sometimes confounds the desire to find meaning through travel in the contemporary world Women Travelers in Egypt Deborah Manley, 2013-09-01 Until late in the nineteenth century few guide books acknowledged the presence of women as travelers although women had been traveling around the world for centuries Women s accounts of their journeys distinct from those of male travelers began to appear more frequently in the early nineteenth century and Egypt was a popular destination Women had more time to watch and describe and they spent time both in the harems of Cairo and with the women they met along the Nile Some of them like Sarah Belzoni Sophia Poole and Ellen Chennells spoke Arabic Others wrote engagingly of their experiences as observers of an exotic culture with special access to some places no man could ever go From Eliza Fay s description of arriving in Egypt in 1779 to Rosemary Mahoney s daring trip down the Nile in a rowboat in 2006 this lively collection of writing by over forty women travelers includes Lady Evelyn Cobbold Isabella Bird Winifred Blackman Norma Lorimer Harriet Martineau Florence Nightingale Amelia Edwards and Lucie Duff Gordon

Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide Nick Rennison, 2009-11-23

Deciding what to read next when you've just finished an unputdownable novel can be a daunting task. The Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide features hundreds of authors and thousands of titles with navigation features to lead you on a rich journey through some of the best literature to grace our shelves. Literary Tourism Ian Jenkins, Katrin Anna Lund, 2019-07-12 Literary tourism is a nascent field in tourism studies yet tourists often travel in the footsteps of well-known authors and stories. Providing a wide-ranging cornucopia of literary tourism topics, this book fully explores the interconnections between the written word and travel. It includes tourism stories using guidebooks, films, television, and electronic media and recognises that stories, texts, and narratives even if they cannot be classified as traditional travel writing can become journeys in themselves and take us on imaginary voyages. Appealing to a wide audience of different disciplines, it encompasses subjects such as business, literary writing, historical journeys, and the poetry of Dylan Thomas. The use of these different perspectives demonstrates how heavily and widely literature influences travel, tourists, and tourism, making it an important read for researchers and students of tourism, social science, and literature. Going the Distance Santiago Henríquez-Jiménez, 1995

Indeed, everyone from the nervous novice to the seasoned cyclist will find something to love in this accessible fun-to-read guide. Flowers in the Snow Gwyneth Hoyle, 2001-01-01

Over the course of a dozen years, Scottish plant collector Isobel Wylie Hutchison (1889-1982) explored northern latitudes from the Lofoten Islands of Norway to the far reaches of the American Aleutians. To achieve her goals, she traveled by any means available: from rowboats in Greenland to trading schooners and coast guard vessels in Alaska. When necessary, she journeyed by snowshoe or sled in pursuit of her botanical specimens, accompanied only by strangers who served as guides. In Flowers in the Snow, Gwyneth Hoyle paints a vivid portrait of a woman gloriously out of the step with the conventions of her time.

Tourism Vivian Kinnaird, Derek R. Hall, 1994-06-30 Examines the impact of tourism from the viewpoint of gender studies, focusing on women's needs, expectations, roles, and opportunities in this rapidly changing and important global industry. Begins with a broad review of the field and highlights key conceptual issues. Contains a selection of case studies ranging from sex tourism in South East Asia and gender in tourism planning to the impact of tourism on women in traditional societies. Introduces a range of notional models for the study of these themes together with suggestions for future research agendas.
