Rights And Realities Comparing New Developments In Longterm Care For Older People:

Equity Choices and Long-Term Care Policies in Europe August Oesterle, 2017-07-05 This title was first published in 2001 Employing an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to equity in long term care this book addresses the fact that demographic changes leading to ageing populations financial pressures and changes in traditional support systems have brought long term care and the redesign of care systems to the top of the European social policy agenda Despite the importance of this issue however the question of equity in long term care has until now received relatively little attention in social policy research Rather than focusing on theories of social justice or the analysis of specific interpretations of equity this book develops key dimensions of equity choices in a framework for systematic comparative analysis This tool is then used to investigate long term care policies in Europe exploring equity choices in both the provision and the finance of long term care These choices are discussed comparatively with regard to the implications for the various actors and are also contrasted with basic welfare state objectives This book represents an important addition to comparative research into several key areas of welfare and welfare state design It explores the division of responsibilities in long term care systems between the public and private and formal and informal sectors the relationships between different welfare state objectives the different types of welfare state intervention and the principles and choices surrounding the allocation of resources and burdens The SAGE Handbook of Social Gerontology Dale Dannefer, Chris Phillipson, 2010-08-13 This SAGE Handbook integrates basic research on social dimensions of aging It presents programmatic applications of research in areas not often seen in Handbooks including imprisonment technology and aging urban society aged and elderly migration The authors constitute a Who's Who of international gerontology and the focus on globalization and aging is unique among Handbooks today This Handbook should be in the library of every social gerontologist Vern L Bengtson Professor of Gerontology University of Southern California This volume reflects the emergence of ageing as a global concern including chapters by international scholars from Asia Australasia Europe and North America It provides a comprehensive overview of key trends and issues in the field drawing upon the full range of social science disciplines The Handbook is organized into five parts each exploring different aspects of research into social aspects of ageing Disciplinary overviews summaries of findings from key disciplinary areas within social gerontology Social relationships and social differences explores area like social inequality gender religion inter generational ties social networks and friendships Individual characteristics and change in later life examines different aspects of individual aging including self and identity cognitive processes and bio social interactions and their impact on physical and psychological aging Comparative perspectives and cultural innovations topics include ageing and development ageing in a global context migration and cross cultural perspectives on grandparenthood Policy issues covering policy concerns such as long term care technology and older people end of life issues work and retirement and the politics of old age This will be essential reading for all students researchers and policy makers concerned with the major issues influencing the lives of older people across the globe Long-Term Care Reforms in OECD Countries Cristiano Gori,Jose-Luis Fernandez,Raphael Wittenberg,2016-06-01 Since the early 1990s long term care policies have undergone significant transformations across OECD countries In some countries these changes have responded to the introduction of major policy reforms while in others significant transformations have come about through the accumulation of incremental policy changes The book brings together evidence from over 15 years of care reform to examine changes in long term care systems occurring in OECD countries It discusses and compares key changes in national policies and examines the main successes and failures of recent reforms Finally it suggests possible policy strategies for the future in the sector With contributions from a wide range of experts across OECD countries this book is essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers in the field of long term care policy Pathy's Principles and Practice of Geriatric Medicine Alan J. Sinclair,John E. Morley,Bruno Vellas,2012-03-13 This new edition of the comprehensive and renowned textbook Principles and Practice of Geriatric Medicine offers a fully revised and updated review of geriatric medicine It covers the full spectrum of the subject features 41 new chapters and provides up to date evidence based and practical information about the varied medical problems of ageing citizens The three editors from UK USA and France have ensured that updated chapters provide a global perspective of geriatric medicine as well as reflect the changes in treatment options and medical conditions which have emerged since publication of the 4th edition in 2006 The book includes expanded sections on acute stroke dementia cardiovascular disease and respiratory diseases and features a new section on end of life care In the tradition of previous editions this all encompassing text continues to be a must have text for all clinicians who deal with older people particularly geriatric medical specialists gerontologists researchers and general practitioners This title is also available as a mobile App from MedHand Mobile Libraries Buy it now from Google Play or the MedHand Store Praise for the 4th edition an excellent reference for learners at all clinical and preclinical levels and a useful contribution to the geriatric medical literature Journal of the American Medical Association November 2006 5th edition selected for 2012 Edition of Doody s Core TitlesTM
