Rights Persons:

Rights and Persons Abraham Irving Melden, 1980-01-01      The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities in Practice Lisa Waddington, Anna Lawson, 2018 A timely examination of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities this first thorough comparative analysis contrasts the approaches of thirteen jurisdictions to reveal a legal area of growing importance      Challenges to the Human Rights of People with Intellectual Disabilities Frances Owen, Dorothy Griffiths, 2008-12-15 This book provides a multidisciplinary examination of human rights and the lives of people with intellectual disabilities It combines historical psychological philosophical social educational medical and legal perspectives to form a unique and insightful account of the subject      The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Great Britain. Parliament. Joint Committee on Human Rights, 2009 The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities builds on existing human rights treaties including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic Social and Cultural Rights The UN Handbook for Parliamentarians on the Convention stresses that it is not intended to create new rights but clarifies the obligations and legal duties of States to respect and ensure the equal enjoyment of all human rights by all persons with disabilities Its purpose is to Promote protect and ensure the full enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms by all persons with disabilities and to promote respect for their inherent dignity The UK was among the first countries to sign the Convention on 30 March 2007 The findings of our recent inquiry on the rights of adults with learning disabilities showed that although UK law and policy on the treatment of adults with learning disabilities takes a human rights based approach the day to day experiences of people with learning disabilities are not so positive Ratification will send a strong signal to all people with disabilities in the UK and abroad that the Government takes equality and the protection of their human rights seriously The Government first publicly stated that reservations to the Convention were being considered in its response to our Report on the treatment of adults with learning disabilities in May 2008 more than a year after it signed the Convention Despite the Committee s call for a full explanation of the government s views on the compatibility of domestic law with the Convention the were then provided with little detail on the reservations being considered or the Government s approach to the process The Committee considers that progress towards ratification of the Convention by the UK has so far lacked transparency and has unfortunately alienated disabled people and their organisations This is unacceptable in the light of the clear Convention commitment which the Government intends to make to the involvement of disabled people in the development of policies and laws which affect them This approach undermines the previous role that the UK Government has played in championing equality for disabled people and their leading role in negotiating the terms of the UNCRPD      Children's Rights in Ghana Robert Kwame Ame, DeBrenna LaFa Agbényiga, Nana Araba Apt, 2011-02-22 This is the first book that examines Ghana s compliance with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC Ghana being the first country to ratify the Convention it thus fills an important

gap in the literature on Ghana The book throws a searchlight on a wide range of rights issues including children's identity violence against children and women child exploitation and children in conflict with the law plus a host of other CRC related issues and further identifies and explains the main obstacles in the way of realizing children's rights in Ghana A major strength of this book is that the contributors Ghanaians and non Ghanaians alike have vast experience in empirical research in Ghana and most importantly come from diverse academic disciplines Researchers instructors and students of Social Work Sociology Criminology Human Rights Education and Law are examples of a few academic disciplines that would find this book a welcome relief in their search for relevant and current data on children's issues in Ghana It should also be of great interest to policy makers human rights activists Children's NGOs and international development partners interested in children's issues

Kuçuradi,2021-01-27 The most significant achievement of 20th century is probably the importance ascribed to the idea of human rights And perhaps the most significant endeavour of the world community in the second half of this century is its attempt to codify these ethical demands in declarations covenants and similar instruments expected to have universal validity Yet besides the unscrupulous violence torture and social injustice which continue to prevail in our world we also see gaining more and more ground tendencies to promote demands and practices which constitute unnoticed obstacles to the protection
