Tandem Lives Henrietta Baker Embree,Tennessee Keys Embree,2008 The mythology of the frontier Texas woman portrays her as fiercely independent strong willed and adventurous This eye opening book however offers a far more complex and intimate version of women s cultural experiences in mid nineteenth century Texas by publishing for the first time the diaries of Henrietta Baker Embree and Tennessee Keys Embree Henrietta and Tennessee were the sequential wives of Dr John W Embree of Belton Texas a physician slaveholder farmer merchant and man of mercurial temperament Their diaries reveal the social and personal challenges women experienced in a region beset first by the Civil War and then by Reconstruction and offer insights into the two women s struggles to survive as battered wives in a society that offered little support and less chance of escape for women bound by nineteenth century ideas about gender roles In the preface and other editorial matter that accompany the two diaries Amy L Wink draws on extensive primary research to fill in the blanks of Henrietta s and Tennessee s lives and place them in historical context The diaries themselves richly illuminate how these women coped with such issues as domestic violence childrearing faith frailty and mortality Most significantly they show how Henrietta and Tennessee and by extension countless other women like them used their writing to construct their sense of personal identity and thereby to empower themselves in the face of debilitating external forces An important contribution to the fields of history women s studies psychology and literature Tandem Lives reveals anew the rich insights offered by the autobiographical writings of ordinary women Amy L Wink PhD is an adjunct professor at Austin Community College in Austin Texas and also works with clients as a writing coach and mentor She is the author of She Left Nothing In Particular The Autobiographical Legacy of Nineteenth Century Women s Diaries and has written for InsideHigherEd com and other publications For more information visit her website amywink com and the companion website to Tandem Lives embreediaries com
