The Rise and Fall of the South African Peasantry Colin Bundy, 1979-01-01      The Rise and Fall of the South African Peasantry Second Edition Colin Bundy, 2009-01      Poverty, War, and Violence in South Africa Clifton Crais, 2011-09-19 Poverty and violence are issues of global importance In Poverty War and Violence in South Africa Clifton Crais explores the relationship between colonial conquest and the making of South Africa's rural poor Based on a wealth of archival sources this detailed history changes our understanding of the origins of the gut wrenching poverty that characterizes rural areas today Crais shifts attention away from general models of economic change and focuses on the enduring implications of violence in shaping South Africa's past and present Crais details the devastation wrought by European forces and their African auxiliaries Their violence led to wanton bloodshed large scale destruction of property and famine Crais explores how the survivors struggled to remake their lives including the adoption of new crops and the world of inequality and vulnerability colonial violence bequeathed He concludes with a discussion of contemporary challenges and the threats to democracy in South Africa      The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021 This Handbook provides a detailed and wide ranging coverage of the key economic questions in South Africa concentrating on the more recent economic challenges facing the country      Outlaws, Anxiety, and Disorder in Southern Africa Rachel King, 2019-06-18 This book explores how objects landscapes and architecture were at the heart of how people imagined outlaws and disorder in colonial southern Africa Drawing on evidence from several disciplines it chronicles how cattle raiders were created pursued and controlled and how modern scholarship strives to reconstruct pasts of disruption and deviance Through a series of vignettes Rachel King uses excavated material rock art archival texts and object collections to explore different facets of how disorderly figures were shaped through impressions of places and material culture as much as actual transgression Addressing themes from mobility to wilderness historiography to violence resistance to development King details the world that raiders made over the last two centuries in southern Africa while also critiquing scholars tools for describing this world Offering inter disciplinary perspectives on the past in Africa's southernmost mountains this book grapples with concepts relevant to those interested in rule breakers and rule makers both in Africa and the wider world      No More Tears Richard Levin, Daniel Weiner, 1997 This text demonstrates why incorporating extensive knowledge that exists in poor rural areas into development of land and reform policies is essential for truly democratic social and economic transformation      The New Imperial Histories Reader Stephen Howe, 2020-07-24 In recent years imperial history has experienced a newfound vigour dynamism and diversity There has been an explosion of new work in the field which has been driven into even greater prominence by contemporary world events However this resurgence has brought with it disputes between those who are labelled as exponents of a new imperial history and those who can by default be termed old imperial historians This collection not only gathers together some of the most important influential and controversial work which has come to be labelled new imperial history but also presents key examples of innovative recent writing across the broader fields of imperial and colonial studies This book is the perfect companion for any student interested in empires and global history      The House of Tshatshu Anne Kelk Mager, Phiko Jeffrey Velelo, 2018-08-30 In rural South Africa today there are signs that chieftaincies are resurging after having been disbanded in colonial times Among these is the amaTshatshu of the Eastern Cape which was dis established in 1852 by the British and recognised once more under the democratic ANC dispensation in 2003 Bawana leader of the amaTshatshu was the first Thembu chief to cross the Kei River in the mid 1820s to open up the northeastern frontier of the Cape Colony His successors and followers fought the British in the frontier wars but were defeated In tracing his history and that of his descendants this book explores the meaning of chieftainship in South Africa at the time of colonial conquest under apartheid s bantustans and now post apartheid It illustrates not only the story of a beleaguered and dispossessed people but also the ways in which power is constructed In addition it is about gender and land about belonging identity and naming The book unsettles accounts of chiefly authority unpacks conflicts between royal families municipalities and government departments and explores the impasse created by these quarrels It retrieves evidence that the colonial state sought to obliterate and draws the disempowered back into the process of making history The authors are both closely associated with the land and the people of the amaTshatshu One is a historian who grew up on their land and the other is counsellor to the chief As such they bring their knowledge and respective skills to bear in this book The collaboration of a black and a white author sets up a creative tension which animates the text and is a powerful element of the book      The Politics of Evil Clifton Crais, 2002-10-17 In The Politics of Evil Clifton Crais provides a unique interpretation of South African history power culture and resistance      Black Political Thought in the Making of South African Democracy C.R.D. Halisi, 1999 a comprehensive analytical survey of the multidimensional evolution of black political thought in South Africa s politicization process Choice Many citizens experience a sense of reluctance to share a single national identity with all of those who are defined by law to be their compatriots This problem can be explained and surmounted but it cannot be evaded by those who aspire to build a stable democracy in South Africa Richard L Sklar from the Foreword What will it mean to be a citizen in the new South Africa This penetrating study analyzes the issues of dual citizenship black consciousness populism racial proletarianization and their interaction with various political ideologies Halisi s analysis has practical implications for the development of political identity in the new South Africa      From Slaving to Neoslavery I. K. Sundiata, 1996 Fernando Po home to the Bantu speaking Bubi people has an unusually complex history Long touted as the key to West Africa it is the largest West African island and the last to enter the world economy Confronted by both African resistance and ecological barriers early British and Spanish imperialism foundered there Not until the late nineteenth century did foreign settlement take hold abetted by a class of westernized black planters It was only then that Fernando Po developed a plantation economy dependent on migrant labor working under conditions similar to slavery In From Slaving to Neoslavery Ibrahim K Sundiata offers a comprehensive history of Fernando Po explains the continuities between slavery and free contract labor and challenges standard notions of labor development and progress in various colonial contexts Sundiata's work is interdisciplinary considering the influences of the environment disease slavery abolition and indigenous state formation in determining the interaction of African peoples with colonialism From Slaving to Neoslavery has manifold implications Historians usually depict the nineteenth century as the period in which free labor triumphed over slavery but Sundiata challenges this notion By examining the history of Fernando Po he illuminates the larger debate about slavery current among scholars of Africa

Contemporary South Africa and the Political

Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose, Isaac Khambule, Nene Ernest Khalema, 2025-02-21 South Africa's struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid As such understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa's place in it is of great importance This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post apartheid South African state has recast its nation building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post apartheid constitution policy directives and democratic political integration economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post apartheid state's apparent neo liberal turn The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state These trends include the impact of globalisation regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development This volume will be a valuable resource to academics researchers and students in the fields of regional studies economics and political theory as well as policymakers planners and local economic development practitioners

The Highest Stage of White Supremacy

John Whitson Cell, 1982-10-29 This book analyses the origins of segregation in South Africa and the American South

Unequal Treatment (Routledge Revivals) Mats Lundahl, Eskil Wadensjö, 2015-05-08 This book written by two leading Swedish economists and first published in 1984 constitutes a threefold contribution to the expanding field of economic discrimination In the first place it summarizes different approaches to the economics of discrimination from the beginning of the British debate on equal pay in the 1890s onwards Secondly the book contains analytical chapters that taking the theory originated by Gary Becker as their point of departure critique and develop the Beckerian theory in a number of ways in particular the phenomenon known as crowding is investigated in different models Finally the theories thus developed are applied to a concrete case of discrimination that of apartheid in South Africa This is a fascinating title that will be of value to any economics students researching the development of discrimination theory during the twentieth century in particular

Nothing But Freedom Eric Foner, 2007-09-01 Nothing But Freedom examines the aftermath of emancipation in the South and the restructuring of society by which the former slaves gained beyond their freedom a new relation to the land they worked on to the men they worked for and to the government they lived under Taking a comparative approach Eric Foner examines Reconstruction in the southern states against the experience of Haiti where a violent slave revolt was followed by the establishment of an undemocratic government and the imposition of a system of forced labor the British Caribbean where the colonial government oversaw an orderly transition from slavery to the creation of an almost totally dependent work force and early twentieth century southern and eastern Africa where a self sufficient peasantry was dispossessed in order to create a dependent black work force Measuring the progress of freedmen in the post Civil War South against that of freedmen in other recently emancipated societies Foner reveals Reconstruction to have been despite its failings a unique and dramatic experiment in interracial democracy in the aftermath of slavery Steven Hahn s timely new foreword places Foner s analysis in the context of recent scholarship and assesses its enduring impact in the twenty first century Reforming Land and Resource Use in South Africa Paul Hebinck, Charlie Shackleton, 2010-11-23 This book explores the debates surrounding land and agrarian reform in South Africa and explores how these reforms and particular those that make access easier have created new options for and broadened the use of land and natural resources

Strange Death of the Liberal Empire David E. Torrance, 1996 Part political biography and part study of imperialism The Strange Death of the Liberal Empire is an examination of Lord Selborne s career as high commissioner for South Africa from 1905 to 1910 Sharecropping and Sharecroppers T. J. Byres, 2005-08-02 First Published in 1983 Of all the social relationships that exist in the countryside in contemporary poor countries and which have existed in the past in developed countries that of share tenancy is among the most significant and the most fascinating It is and has been geographically widespread varied in its manifestations and historically tenacious Sharecropping has been singled out frequently in land reform programmes as a candidate for elimination Yet it persists often in disguised form It raises difficult theoretical issues which have attracted the attention of some of the outstanding economists from Adam Smith through John Stuart Mill Karl Marx and Alfred Marshall and which remain contentious Sharecroppers moreover have sometimes been involved in important political movements in the countryside This too has given rise to considerable debate In this double special number of the Journal of Peasant Studies these varied issues are given extensive and rigorous treatment within a predominantly political economy framework Sharecropping and sharecroppers are examined both in general terms in a number of theoretical contributions and in a rich variety of regional contexts in which their specific manifestations emerge

Routledge Library Editions: World Empires Various, 2021-07-09 The 16 volumes in this set originally published between 1919 and 1998 draw together research by leading academics in the area of World Empires and provide an examination of related key issues The books examine French Colonialism the German Empire and the Ottoman Empire as well as the effect European colonialism had in Africa and Asia This set will be of particular interest to students of world history

The ANC's Early Years Peter Limb, 2024-12-02 The African National Congress ANC is the oldest and most durable of African nationalist movements not only in South Africa but also across the continent Since 1994 it has governed the country as leader of the Tripartite Alliance with the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and South African Communist Party SACP The early decades of the twentieth century saw the establishment survival and growth of ANC and black labour organisations This book focuses on the formative period of engagement of these political and socioeconomic forces before permanent alliances emerged It analyses the ANC's attitudes and relationships with the nascent formations of the black working class with particular attention to the most conscious and active workers The subject matter in this book also discusses migrant rural domestic and women workers not always then clearly defined as part of a formal working class Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges
