Douglas, Michael Dennis Callahan, Elizabeth Bishop, 2006-01-01 Imperialism on Trial reveals across a broad cross section of geographical and political settings the operation of the complicated and often conflicted dynamic between the national and international dimensions of colonialism in its final and most historically consequential phase Proudly We Can be Africans James Hunter Meriwether, 2002 Meriwether explores the dynamic nature of Africa's role in African American lives from the middle 1930s to the early 1960s during the confluence of the liberation struggles in Africa and the civil rights movement in the United States *The Journal of the Senate During the ... Tillery, Jr., 2011-03-15 In Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B Tillery Jr considers the history of political engagement with Africa on the part of African Americans beginning with the birth of Paul Cuffe's back to Africa movement in the Federal Period to the Congressional Black Caucus struggle to reach consensus on the African Growth and Opportunity Act of 2000 In contrast to the prevailing view that pan Africanism has been the dominant ideology guiding black leaders in formulating foreign policy positions toward Africa Tillery highlights the importance of domestic politics and factors within the African American community Employing an innovative multimethod approach that combines archival research statistical modeling and interviews Tillery argues that among African American elites activists intellectuals and politicians factors internal to the community played a large role in shaping their approach to African issues and that shaping U S policy toward Africa was often secondary to winning political battles in the domestic arena At the same time Africa and its interests were important to America's black elite and Tillery's analysis reveals that many black leaders have strong attachments to the motherland Spanning two centuries of African American engagement with Africa this book shows how black leaders continuously balanced national transnational and community impulses whether distancing themselves from Marcus Garvey's back to Africa movement supporting the anticolonialism movements of the 1950s or opposing South African apartheid in the 1980s Royce's Sailing Illustrated Patrick M. Scientific American, 1911 Thinking with Animation Joff P. N. Bradley, Catherine Ju-yu Cheng, 2021-08-09 This volume brings together scholars based predominantly in Asia to contribute provocative and experimental essays on the dynamic relationship between animation and philosophy In an inventive and playful philosophical way they address not only the mainstay of Japanese animation but also Korean film picture books and Mickey Mouse to understand what we might call film philosophy in Asia In thinking animation with concepts from the technicolour philosophies of Deleuze Guattari Stiegler Benjamin Kristeva and Heidegger the book sees animation not as a representation of a philosophical idea per se but conceptualizes it as a philosophical thinking device In the images themselves what is at work is not just the thinking of a particular director or manga artist but rather thinking as such through and by the images themselves The scholars in this collection are committed to thinking images themselves as thought experiments and thinking machines Annual Report of the Secretary of War United States.
