Rising Tide Of Cultural Pluralism:

The Rising Tide of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young, 1993 Two decades after the publication of his prize winning book The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young and a distinguished panel of contributors assess the changing impact of cultural pluralism on political processes around the world specifically in the former Soviet Union China United States India Ethiopia and Guatemala The result is an arresting look at the dissolution of the nation state system as we have known it Crawford Young opens with an overview of the dramatic rise in the political significance of cultural pluralism and of scholars changing understanding of what drives and shapes ethnic identification Mark Beissinger brilliantly explains the demise of the last great empire state the USSR while Edward Friedman notes growing challenges to the apparent cultural homogeneity of China Nader Entessar suggests intriguing contrasts in Azeri identity politics in Iran and the ex USSR Ronald Schmidt and Noel Kent explore the language and racial dimensions of the rising multicultural currents in the United States Douglas Spitz shows the extent of the decline of the old secular vision of India of the independence generation Alan LeBaron traces the recent emergence of an assertive Mayan identity among a submerged populace in Guatemala long thought to be destined for Ladinoization A case study of the diversity and uncertain future of Ethiopia dramatically emerges from four contrasting contributions Tekle Woldemikael looks at the potential cultural tensions in Eritrea Solomon Gashaw offers a central Ethiopian nationalist perspective Herbert Lewis reflects the perspectives of a restless and disaffected periphery and James Quirin provides an arresting explanation of the construction of identity amongst the Beta Israel Ethiopian Jews Virginia Sapiro steps back from specific regions offering an original analysis of the interaction between cultural pluralism and gender

Emancipating Cultural Pluralism Cris E. Toffolo, 2012-02-01 Combining detailed case studies with discussions of deeper theoretical controversies Emancipating Cultural Pluralism investigates both the benign and harmful aspects of identity politics This provocative collection delves into some of the most difficult issues of cultural pluralism such as what accounts for the immense power of identity politics whether identity politics can be inherently good or evil whether states are the right institutions to deal with ethnic conflict the prevention of genocide the value of devolving power to the local level and more The contributions are united by the conviction that more attention needs to be paid to the normative issues associated with various expressions of cultural pluralism for the ethical implications of the phenomena are too profound to be ignored

African Minorities in the New World Toyin Falola, Niyi Afolabi, 2007-11-13 This book discusses the minority status of African immigrants in the New World by revisiting the concept of a new African diaspora and its multiple in Socialist China Edward Friedman, 2016-09-16 This analysis of every facet of a national identity makes it less likely that the next great explosion in the Communist world and its consequences will come as a surprise It investigates tendencies in China that might lead it down the same path as Russia and Yugoslavia

Subnationalism in Africa Joshua Forrest, 2004 This examination of the politics of ethnicity and nation building in Africa stresses the trend towards subnationalist autonomy and away from a singular state centric system based on the Western model Forrest ranges across the continent to explore a variety of subnational movements

Nationalism and Intra-State Conflicts in the Postcolonial World Fonkem Achankeng, 2015-09-28 This book highlights the complexities of nationalism and the struggles of different groups left unaddressed within the nation states of a postcolonial world The central question is what happened to the worldly and radical visions of freedom liberty and equality that animated intellectual activists and policy makers from Woodrow Wilson in the 1920s This book analyzes the outcome of lumping disparate groups of people together under one nation state and holding them together against the knowledge of the incompatibility theory of plural states In a world of arbitrarily and colonially mapped sovereign states groups and nations with distinctive histories and cultures trapped within the borders of sovereign states want the freedom to decide their own destinies This book challenges deconstructs and decolonizes Western epistemologies related to postcolonial state formation and maintenance In examining the freedom concept that no human group ought to be determining the independence of other human groups this book constructs an alternative conceptualization of nations and peoples rights in the twenty first century in which radical hopes and global dreams are recognized as central to internal nationalism struggles

Kelley, 2003-01-01 In this collection top scholars of Soviet and post Soviet studies convene to explore communism s aftermath They consider state building and consitutionalism the transition to market capitalism and democracy across Eastern Europe the political development of Muslim states the complex and differential developments of electoral systems the risks and opportunities of nationalism and new political and economic activities in Russia from corruption to contracts Editor Donald Kelley introduces the volume with a synthesis of the theoretical and empirical findings of the volume and his brief chapter introductions place each contribution in relation to the other essays and to larger debates on democratization
