Korea Vietnam Inner Asia Buryatia Mongolia Tibet and the Himalayan region Bhutan These regions were connected by communicative networks long before the global modern age They constituted an intricately entangled discursive sphere shaped by the cross regional spread of concepts and ideas from Buddhism and in East Asia Confucianism The volume sheds light on the prehistory and development of culturally specific forms of secularity and related concepts in Asia It comprises a wide range of texts spanning approximately 2000 years in many cases this is the first time that they have been presented in English The texts here are not merely reproduced but are also introduced and contextualized Through these materials the volume highlights the fact that distinctions akin to those between the religious and the secular were already prevalent in premodern Asia laying the groundwork for the various forms of secularity which took shape in the modern period Guide to Buddhist Religion Frank Reynolds, John Holt, John Strong, 1981 Faith & Philosophy of Buddhism V.
