Seduction A Portrait Of Anais Nin:

Seduction Margot Duxler, 2002 Studies the use Anais Nin made of her childhood diary in an effort to manage severe childhood trauma Duxler was a friend of Nin's during the last decade of Nin's life Anais Nin Maryanne Raphael, 2003-07 For readers unfamiliar with her subject Maryanne Raphael's biography Anais Nin The Voyage Within is a sensitive uncomplicated introduction to the life and work of one of the 20th century's most quintessentially feminine artists For Nin devotees the biography is a refresher course taking us back through the vast material of the Diaries and novels that enchanted and inspired our love Raphael accepts Nin entirely on her own terms Thanks to a warm personal relationship with Rupert Pole Nin's surviving husband and executor of her estate Raphael opens up some of the mystery that has hitherto surrounded Nin's relationship with her husbands an aspect of Nin's life that was never explicitly described in the original Diaries The result is a multi dimensional portrait in which Nin's two selves artist and woman are fully integrated Nin the woman consciously chooses to realize female desire give form to female imagination always loving as she remains completely focused on birthing a new unabashedly feminine literature Thank you Maryanne Dolores Brandon Author of IN THE SHADOW OF MADNESS A Memoir Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok, 2017-02-15 Ana's Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin's guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin's celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin's celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin's writing identity public image and consumer culture Psychobiography James William Anderson, 2024 Psychobiography is the study through a psychological lens of influential and important figures in history politics literature and other fields A psychological approach is necessary to reveal what moves and motivates these people Many psychobiographies have been faulty because they throw psychological jargon at their subjects and treat them simplistically Anderson shows how to study psychobiographical subjects sensitively and compellingly For Keeps Victoria Zackheim, 2007-11-23 An uplifting collection of personal essays by top writers explores the changing relationship women have with their bodies as they age or work through illness or injury in an empowering volume that includes contributions by such names as Barbara Abercrombie

A Dream of Hitchcock Murray Pomerance, 2018-12-27 Explores Hitchcock's repeated voyages into the dreamlike A Dream of Hitchcock examines the recurring motif of the dream in Hitchcock's work dreamscapes dream processes the dream effect by focusing on close readings of six celebrated but often misinterpreted films Strangers on a Train Rebecca Saboteur Rear Window To Catch a Thief and Family Plot The Hitchcockian dream as invoked here is not so much a dream as it is a way of understanding in its dramatic contexts an unearthly irrational quality in the filmmaker's work Rebecca revolves around problems of memory To Catch a Thief around uncertainty Saboteur around pungent aspiration Family Plot around intuition

Rear Window around expansive imagination and Strangers on a Train around delirious madness All of these films enunciate the return of the past the invocation of a boundary beyond which experience becomes unpredictable and uncertain and the celebration of values that transcend narrative resolution Murray Pomerance's distinctive method for thinking through Hitchcock's work allows these films to inform theorization not the other way around His original provocative and groundbreaking explorations point to the importance of fantasy improbability doubt disconcertion hope memory intuition and belief through which the oneiric comes to the center of waking life This lively informed insightful book is a like a jazz riff on the six films under consideration mixing cultural historical filmic and literary allusions to interpret each film I think it would be as interesting and helpful to a person just beginning to study Hitchcock's films seriously as to an academic who has been studying and writing about Hitchcock for years Richard A Gilmore author of Doing Philosophy at the Movies
