Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell,2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life

writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France Studies in Intelligence ,2014 Love and Russian Literature Ira Nadel,2023-11-30 Russia haunted the British cultural imagination throughout the 20th century whether as a romantic source of literary and political inspiration or as a warning of creeping totalitarianism In this new book Ira Nadel charts the story of that influence through the work of some of the key figures in British literature across the century including Joseph Conrad Somerset Maugham Jane Harrison Virginia Woolf and H G Wells Framed by the story of two romantic encounters between Walter Benjamin and the actress Asja Lacis in Moscow in 1926 and between Isaiah Berlin and Anna Akhmatova in 1945 Love and Russian Literature casts a vivid new light on the ways in which responses to Russia shaped the history of British modernism The Femme Fatale: Images, Histories, Contexts Helen Hanson,Catherine O'Rawe,2010-07-20 These essays trace the femme fatale across literature visual culture and cinema exploring the ways in which fatal femininity has been imagined in different cultural contexts and historical epochs and moving from mythical women such as Eve Medusa and the Sirens via historical figures such as Mata Hari to fatal women in contemporary cinema The Cinema of Michael Powell Ian Christie,Andrew Moor,2019-07-25 The films of Michael Powell 1905 90 and Emeric Pressburger 1902 88 among them I Know Where I m Going 1945 A Matter of Life and Death 1947 and The Red Shoes 1948 are landmarks in British cinema standing apart from the realist and comic mainstream with their highly stylised aesthetic and their themes of romantic longing and spiritual crisis Powell and Pressburger are revered by film lovers and film makers Martin Scorsese has called them the most successful experimental film makers in the world In this first ever collection of essays on Powell an international group of critics and scholars map out his film making skills providing new readings of individual films analysing recurrent techniques and themes and relating them to contemporary debates about gender sexuality nationality and cinematic spectacle Powell with and without Pressburger emerges as a film maker of lasting originality and significance
