

A dramatic painting depicting the biblical scene of Moses encountering God on Mount Sinai. On the left, Moses, with a long dark beard and wearing a red and white robe, is shown in a dynamic, almost dancing pose, reaching out towards the right. On the right, God, depicted as an elderly man with a long white beard and wild white hair, is shown in a similar dynamic pose, wearing a dark robe and reaching out towards Moses. The background is a swirling, stormy sky with dark clouds and a bright, golden light emanating from the right side, suggesting the presence of the divine. The overall composition is dynamic and emphasizes the face-to-face encounter between the two figures.

Seeing God:

Seeing God Everywhere: Essays On Nature Barry McDonald, 2010-08-01 How do people sense God's presence in created things? Seeing God Everywhere is an anthology of essays on nature and the sacred which address that question. Written by an impressive list of spiritual leaders and thinkers, these essays explore the question from many different perspectives. Reading these essays enriches our inner lives and enlivens our contemplative imaginations. Surely this is the deepest ecology possible. As a special bonus, at the end of each essay is a short poem on nature and the sacred taken from various traditions.

Seeing God Hans Boersma, 2018 Winner of the Christianity Today Book Award in Theology/Ethics 2019 To see God is our heart's desire, our final purpose in life. But what does it mean to see God? And exactly how do we see God with our physical eyes or with the mind's eye? In this informed study of the beatific vision, Hans Boersma focuses on vision as a living metaphor and shows how the vision of God is not just a future but a present reality. Seeing God is both a historical theology and a dogmatic articulation of the beatific vision of how the invisible God becomes visible to us. In examining what Christian thinkers throughout history have written about the beatific vision, Boersma explores how God trains us to see his character by transforming our eyes and minds, highlighting continuity from this world to the next. Christ-centered, sacramental, and ecumenical, Boersma's work presents life as a never-ending journey toward seeing the face of God in Christ, both here and in the world to come.
