Seek Peace And Pursue It Proceedings From The 1988 International Baptist Peace Conference:

Seek Peace and Pursue It H. Wayne Pipkin,1989 Building a Culture of Peace Paul R. Dekar,2010-01-01 Around the world thousands of grassroots movements are confronting issues like destruction of the environment economic depression human rights violations religious fundamentalism and war This book tells the courageous story of one such group Organizing in 1939 Northern Baptists formed the Baptist Pacifist Fellowship as part of the Fellowship of Reconciliation Southern Baptists formed a parallel body Like today it was a time when sources of hope seemed hard to find Discerning a need to support and connect Baptist conscientious objectors in the United States members faced hostility in congregations and the nation For the duration of the Second World War the Korean War war in Vietnam and elsewhere Baptists sustained a witness for peace and justice By 1984 threat of nuclear weapons led to formation of a wider circle of resistance to the culture of war Subsequently the Baptist Peace Fellowship of North America has brought together Baptist peacemakers from around North America and the world However small in numbers or reviled members have been building a culture of peace through an interracial and international community This book is an invaluable resource for those seeking a new world of forgiveness respect for human rights nonviolence and peace Baptists Worldwide Erich Geldbach,2022-07-06 The diverse Baptist movement goes back to the separatist wing of English puritanism The book first describes the history and missionary expansion of this movement It then lays out its teachings on baptism eucharist and ministry its commitment to religious liberty and human rights its socio political involvement as well as the role of women in the church Finally exemplary details of Baptist existence in the local congregations and Unions Conventions from around the world provide insight into the colorful life work order and faith of a global people held loosely together by its World Alliance All thirty essays are written by experts in their fields from all continents Seek Peace & Pursue it :bPsalm 34:14 ; Proceedings from the 1988 International Baptist Peace Conference, Sjövik, Sweden, August 3-7, 1988 Baptist Peace Fellowship of North America,European Baptist Federation,1989 The European Baptist Federation Keith G. Jones,2009-11-01 A criticism often leveled at Baptists is that they have no theology of ecclesial reality beyond the local In this book Keith Jones describes the history and current reality of the European Baptist Federation EBF which brings together over fifty national Baptist groups in Europe and the Middle East and seeks to demonstrate that there is an ecclesial reality within the organization expressed in its communal life mission activity working on theological education in relationship to other Christian world communions and in its decision making processes The role of the pivotal figure of the General Secretary of the EBF is examined with particular reference to two significant figures The relationship of European Baptists during the cold war era is explored as is the relationship to two key mission agencies from the USA who have done much work in Europe This represents ground breaking work in terms of an examination of how Baptists in Europe work together trans nationally
