Seeking Faith Is Religion Really What You Think It Is:

Seeking Faith Nathan Rutstein, 2002 Many people express a need for spiritual fulfillment but are troubled or at best put off by what is often and loosely called organized religion This is especially true today when once venerated institutions and trusted public figures have become subjects of investigation sources of disappointment and worse People fear becoming victims of crime and alter their daily lives to avoid it Terrorism committed in the name of religion and political causes painfully reminds us of how human capacities can be turned with devastating results against ourselves At times much of the world appears to be in a state of decay and sources of spiritual strength seem scattered and elusive Nathan Rutstein understands this His book Seeking Faith Is Religion Really What You Think It Is describes his personal search for purpose and meaning in life a search that led him to the Baha i Faith and its distinctive perspective on the past its reassuring understanding of the present and its confident vision of the future The Story of Baha'u'llah Druzzelle Cederquist, 2005 Describes Baha u ll h s life straightforwardly but with drama and a talent for evoking the ambience of the 19th century Persian and Ottoman milieus Five appendices cover a chronology of the events in the life of Baha ull h s life Baha ull h s family the branches of Islam millennial Christians and his younger half brother Mirza Yahy The Reality of Man Terry Cassidy, Chris Martin, 2005 The Reality of Man presents a glimpse of the unique depth range and creative potency of Baha u llah s writings on such fundamental questions as What is a human being What is the purpose of human existence Where did we come from Is there a God What is God like Do we each have a preordained role or mission in life Is there life after death Are some religions true and others false How can one evaluate religions This compilation provides a sample of the Baha i religion s vast teachings on the nature of man and answers these questions and more The Book of Certitude , 2003 The Kitab i iqan The Book of Certitude is one of the an important scriptural works in the Baha i Faith In it Baha u llah gives a sweeping overview of religious truth explaining the underlying unity of the world s religions describing the universality of the revelations humankind has received from the Prophets of God illuminating their fundamental teachings and elucidating allegorical passages from the New Testament and the Qur an that have given rise to misunderstanding among religious leaders practitioners and the public It's Not Your Fault Patricia Romano McGraw, 2004 This engaging and highly readable book based on the author s professional experience in treating those who suffer from the devastating effects of emotional trauma offers hope for those who suffer and those who care about them Dr McGraw describes how trauma affects the brain and therefore one s ability to carry out good advice explains the subtle and largely hidden processes of attunement and attachment that take place between parents and children examining their impact on all future relationships tells what is needed for healing to occur discusses the profound health benefits of spirituality and a relationship with God in assisting and accelerating the healing process and suggests how members of the helping professions can begin to tap the deepest most authentic parts of themselves to touch the hearts of those they seek to help Close Connections John S. Hatcher, 2005

Close Connections will appeal to anyone interested in spirituality and its link to everyday life For more than twenty five years John Hatcher has studied the nature and purpose of physical reality by exploring the theological and philosophical implications of the authoritative Baha i texts His latest book explains how the gap between physical and spiritual reality is routinely crossed and describes the profound implications that result from the interplay of both worlds Advancement of Women Janet Adrienne Khan, Peter Khan, 2003 The equality of women and men is one of the basic tenets of the Baha i Faith and much is said on the subject in the Baha i writings Until now however no single volume created for a general audience has provided comprehensive coverage of the Baha i teachings on this topic and its many aspects In this broad survey husband and wife team Janet and Peter Khan address even those aspects of equality of the sexes that are usually ignored or glossed over in the existing literature The Hidden Words Baha'u'llah, 2002 A collection of lyrical gem like verses of scripture that convey timeless spiritual wisdom clothed in the garment of brevity The Hidden Words is one of the most important and cherished scriptural works of the Baha i Faith Revealed by Baha u llah the founder of the religion the verses are a perfect guidebook to walking a spiritual path and drawing closer to God They address themes such as turning to God humility detachment and love to name but a few These verses are among Baha u llah s earliest and best known works having been translated into more than seventy languages and read by millions worldwide This edition will offer many readers their first introduction to the vast collection of Baha i scripture The Baha'i Faith William S. Hatcher, James Douglas Martin, 2002 Explore the history teachings structure and community life of the world wide Baha i community what may well be the most diverse organized body of people on earth through this revised and updated comprehensive introduction 2002 Named by the Encyclopedia Britannica as a book that has made significant contributions to the knowledge and understanding of religious thought The Baha i Faith covers the most recent developments in a faith that in just over 150 years has grown to become the second most wide spread of the independent world religions A Way Out of the Trap Nathan Rutstein, 2007 An easy to follow guide for people of all faiths who want to reconnect with God and live more fulfilling lives A Way Out of the Trap A Ten Step Program for Spiritual Growth offers a process by which the spiritually hungry can find the faith hope and spiritual sustenance needed to break out of the trap of hopelessness Author Nathan Rutstein outlines a spiritual path that can help people of all faiths to reconnect with God The result is a practical guide to understanding the purpose of life and how to live it Faith Deconstruction For Dummies Mashaun D. discover tools and resources that will help you map out your path Those who deconstruct their faith may end up departing from organized religion while others may develop a closer relationship with God Find answers to your heart's deepest questions with this compassionate Dummies guide Dissect your beliefs reevaluate traditions and rituals and find the practices that feel right for you Get answers to questions like Who am I What do I believe What is my relationship to my faith Find safe spaces where you can explore your options and build community through the deconstruction process Evaluate your spirituality in the face of skepticism curiosity trauma loss or simply a desire to question Faith Deconstruction For Dummies is a guide for readers from all walks of life who are sitting with complicated questions regarding what they have been taught versus what they have begun to believe What's Faith Got to Do with It? John Clayton Lentz, 2025-09-11 Do you have questions about God prayer politics religion sex Jesus and the Bible but aren't satisfied with traditional pat answers Then join the journey of loving the questions shaping your life by curiosity discovery and appreciation This is a book for lifelong learners seekers doubters believers who wonder and the nonaffiliated The questions that are addressed arose from a small group of young adults who gathered to circle the mysteries and wonder aloud about them and in so doing found a community of support and confidence about their own faith expressions Why, God? Margaret Cupit-Link, Edward Hugh Henderson, 2015-03-04 A nineteen year old chemistry major at Rhodes College is selected to spend the summer after her freshman year doing research at St Jude Children's Research Hospital Instead she finds herself a patient there fighting a life threatening form of pediatric cancer and suffering through a year of aggressive chemotherapy and surgery Refusing to believe what many tell her that the cancer was all part of God's plan she finds solace in journaling and begins a discussion with her grandfather a university professor specializing in philosophy of religion Through her experiences and writing about them the student discovers that she may be a person of faith after all just not in the way she expected Her grandfather has selected and arranged the journal entries and their faith conversation and has commented on them in order to bring out the spiritual dimensions of her experience He learns from his granddaughter that faith comes more through experience than through ideas The coauthors hope the book will help other sufferers recognize the presence of a loving God in the midst of pain uncertainty and death Nonreligion in Late Modern Societies Anne-Laure Zwingling, Helge Årsheim, 2022-06-14 This volume presents results from new and ongoing research efforts into the role of nonreligion in education politics law and society from a variety of different countries Featuring data from a wide range of quantitative and qualitative studies the book exposes the relational dynamics of religion and nonreligion Firstly it highlights the extent to which nonreligion is defined and understood by legal and institutional actors on the basis of religions and often replicates the organisation of society and majority religions At the same time it displays how essential it is to approach nonreligion on its own by freeing oneself from the frameworks from which religion is thought The book addresses pressing questions such as How can nonreligion be defined and how can the nones be grasped and taken into account in studies on religion How does the sociocultural and religious backdrop of different countries affect the regulation and representation of nonreligion in law and policymaking Where and how do nonreligious individuals and collectives fit into institutions in contemporary societies How does nonreligion affect notions of citizenship and national belonging Despite growing scholarly interest in the increasing number of people without religion the role of nonreligion in legal and institutional settings is still largely unexplored This volume helps fill the gap and will be of interest to students researchers policymakers and others seeking deeper understanding of the changing role of nonreligion in modern societies
