Ezra Pound and the Symbolist Inheritance Scott Hamilton,2014-07-14 In this revisionary study of Ezra Pound s poetics Scott Hamilton exposes the extent of the modernist poet s debt to the French romantic and symbolist traditions Whereas previous critics have focused on a single influence Hamilton explores a broad spectrum of French poets including Thophile Gautier Tristan Corbiere Jules Laforgue Remy de Gourmont Henri de Rgnier Jules Romaines Laurent Tailhade Paul Verlaine and Stphane Mallarm This exploration of Pound s canon demonstrates his logic in borrowing from the French tradition as well as a paradoxical circularity to his poetic development Hamilton begins by explaining how Pound read Gautier s poetry as an example of Parnassianism and of the satirical realism of Flaubert and the modern novelistic tradition He reveals however a crucial blind spot in Pound s poetic vision that facilitated his return to precisely those romantic and proto symbolist elements in Gautier that were celebrated by Baudelaire and Mallarm and that Pound as a modern poet felt obliged to repress Arguing that Pound s response to symbolism was not specifically modernist Hamilton shows how his dual attraction to the lyric and prose traditions to symbolism and realism and to the visionary and the historical helps us better to understand our own post modern sensibility Originally published in 1992 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Student
