

LONG LIFE

BY NIGEL NICOLSON

Author, novelist, politician, soldier, and publisher are just a few of the roles that Nigel Nicolson has played in life, and thus far more chapters in his autobiography.

The younger son of Harold Nicolson and Vita Sackville-West, Nigel Nicolson grew up in a world that combined Blenheim Palace, Knole, his grandfather's great house in Kent, Eton with Stinkingford, Oxford with the uninhabited islands in the Outer Hebrides that he bought while still an undergraduate.

Nicolson was Virginia Woolf's eleven-year-old companion while she was writing Orlando, her fantasy about his mother. He walked alone through the wildest parts of Greece; admired Mussolini, and Hitler in Rome, and Goebbels in Berlin, then changed his mind when war came, serving in the Grenadier Guards in the African and Italian campaigns.

After the war, he founded, together with George Weidenfeld, the publishing firm of Weidenfeld & Nicolson, which, despite a

Long Life Memoirs:

Memoirs of Eighty Years Thomas Gordon Hake, 2019-12-19 In Memoirs of Eighty Years Thomas Gordon Hake compiles a rich tapestry of personal narratives that traverse the historical and cultural landscapes of the 19th century. Written with a reflective and contemplative literary style, Hake intricately weaves the threads of his life experiences with broader societal commentaries illustrating the complexities of Victorian society. The memoir serves not only as a historical document but also as a fascinating introspection on the human condition, capturing the essence of an era marked by profound transformation and personal evolution. Hake, an accomplished poet and writer, was deeply influenced by the tumultuous events surrounding him, including the development of industrialization and the shifting societal norms of his time. His diverse background and various encounters with notable contemporaries lend authenticity and depth to his reflections. Drawing from both his professional and personal life, Hake's insights present a uniquely subjective lens through which readers might understand both the individual and collective psyche of his era. Memoirs of Eighty Years is highly recommended for readers who appreciate historical memoirs that delve into both the minutiae of daily life and the grand narratives of society. Hake's eloquence and keen observations will resonate with historians, literary enthusiasts, and anyone interested in the personal stories that give texture to our understanding of the past.

Memories of a Long Life Cecil William Norton Baron Rathcreedan, 1931

Psychoanalytic Memoirs Jeffrey Berman, 2022-11-17 The first book-length study of the psychoanalytic memoir, this book examines key examples of the genre, including Sigmund Freud's mistitled An Autobiographical Study, Helene Deutsch's Confrontations with Myself: An Epilogue, Wilfred Bion's War Memoirs 1917-1919, Masud Khan's The Long Wait, Sophie Freud's Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family, and Irvin D. Yalom and Marilyn Yalom's A Matter of Death and Life. Offering in each chapter a brief character sketch of the memoirist, the book shows how personal writing fits into their other work, often demonstrating the continuities and discontinuities in an author's life as well as discussing each author's contributions to psychoanalysis, whether positive or negative.

A Pedagogue's Memoir Grant Rodwell, 2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied. To meet emerging demands, the memoir genre continually is evolving, and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes, time, and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs. Thus, the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis. For better or for worse, childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles, profoundly shaping who we are as teachers, teaching styles, and generally the things we consider important and not so important. The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood. It can affect our ability to trust, be vulnerable, and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally, and also our general levels of motivation. Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes, my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career, from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia's G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool

A Memoir of an Educational Biographer Gerald L. Gutek, 2024-09-01 In his interdisciplinary memoir Gerald Gutek applies history and philosophy of education to educational biography The author was guided by his focusing goals of exploring his path to becoming an educational biographer and working generalizations with his colleagues in the field Gutek's narrative begins with the author's childhood experiences that inclined him to a career in education followed by chapters on his doctoral program in the College of Education at the University of Illinois in Champaign Urbana his teaching of history and philosophy and education in the School of Education at Loyola University Chicago his research and writing of biographies of Johann Heinrich Pestalozzi and Joseph Neef and his textbook Historical and Philosophical Foundations of Education a Biographical Introduction and issues and strategies in writing about Maria Montessori Throughout the book Gutek analyzes concepts and applications he developed as an educational biographer such as parallel biographies slice of life writing reconsidering overlooked and understudied educators and the role of place and space in telling life stories

ENDORSEMENTS Readers both new to educational biography or familiar with the discipline will find a valuable account of the author's long and varied career as a biographer From his childhood memory of listening to neighbors' stories in his grandfather's grocery store to encounters with the important teachers in his life Gutek brings his own story to life As he recounts the influences on his personal intellectual history and the processes of his research and writing readers gain valuable insights into the methods of an experienced educational biographer Larry Prochner University of Alberta For fifty years Gerald Gutek has been and remains one of the seminal and leading voices in the field of educational biography thus it only makes sense for him to create something new an intellectual memoir From his work on Counts in 1970 to his work on Montessori 2016 and her acolytes in the US 2020 Gutek has reliably bridged the worlds of educational history educational biography and philosophical foundations of education this work cements his legacy Gutek skillfully interweaves personal and family history with movements in educational history both formal and informal then explains how these impacted his thinking and writing Throughout this eminently readable memoir Gutek also includes political and historical context without engaging in divisiveness Scholars of life writing should give this a close reading as Gutek sprinkles nuggets of methodological brilliance throughout the manuscript Junior scholars would do well to read Gutek's more substantive sections on the methods used to write each of his books it is the academic equivalent of Master Class in textual form Ed Janak University of Toledo
