Long Life To Your Children A Portrait Of High Albania:

Long Life to Your Children! Marjorie Senechal, 1997 The text includes introductory chapters on Albanian history and customs as well as several photographic essays that convey a vivid sense of place The book captures the beauty of the country the warmth of the people and the rigors of contemporary Albanian life Long Life to Your Children! Marjorie Senechal, 1997 The text includes introductory chapters on Albanian history and customs as well as several photographic essays that convey a vivid sense of place The book captures the beauty of the country the warmth of the people and the rigors of contemporary Albanian life The Balkans in Travel Writing Marija Knežević, 2015-09-18 This book revisits images of the Balkans in twentieth century travel writing that vividly mirrors the turbulent changes that the region went through As such it provides a vital basis for research into the variety of possibilities or obstacles present on the region's path to accession when its unique heritage will have to be reconciled with a more European identity This volume explores the work of well known authors such as Rebecca West Paul Theroux Robert D Kaplan and also contributes to travel writing theory by addressing less known travellers who recorded their thoughts on the social dynamics of the region The corpus offers divergent and often contradictory views ranging from moral and political criticism to a delight in the rich heritage and the still undiscovered Balkan paths More importantly its generic potentials prove to overcome both the discourse of power and the discourse of apology Its narrative style also comprises striking variations from the objective and well researched approaches to quick impressionist sketches Being a multi generic form travel writing is observed from a multidisciplinary perspective encompassing fields such as literature linguistics history sociology anthropology ethnology political sciences and geography Historical Dictionary of Albania Robert Elsie, 2010-03-19 Albania is not well known by outsiders it was deliberately closed to the outside world during the communist era Now it has thankfully become free again its borders are open and it can be visited and it is increasingly integrating with the rest of Europe and beyond Unfortunately Albania has had its share of problems in the post communist era it's a land of destitution and despair thanks in part to the Albanian mafia which has turned the country into one of blood feuds kalashnikovs and eternal crises Yet Albania is in essence a European nation like any other and will soon it is to be hoped advance and take its proper place in Europe and the world The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Albania relates the history of this little known country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography appendixes and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets Central and South-Eastern Europe 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Comprises a general survey of the region country surveys political profiles of the region and information on international and regional organizations and research institutes Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake, 2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas

Anthropological Perspectives on Yugoslav Ethnicity, Culture, and History , Before the former Yugoslavia was divided by wars its inhabitants successfully lived side by side in peace This collection seeks to explain how former neighbors became enemies with the hope that understanding what drove these peoples apart will help us discover ways for them to coexist in peace again Contributors analyze political cartoons psychiatry the arts visual media and law to present a diversity of views on the conflicts in Yugoslavia While the chapters in this book deal with regional developments they are not so much focused on politics as they are concerned with how values and attitudes are altered and new identities formed Thus this volume goes beyond recent journalistic accounts and should remain relevant for years to come This book began as a special issue of the journal Anthropology of East Europe Review Most of the contributors to that issue have revised their chapters for this collection and new chapters have been added including one on the recent war in Kosovo Essays range across all of former Yugoslavia emphasizing the variability and diversity of ethnic relations throughout its history Contributors are Mart Bax Brian C Bennett Nikolai Botev Bette Denich Elinor Despalatovi Hannes Grandits Joel M Halpern E A Hammel Robert M Hayden Goran Jovanovic va V Huseby Darvas David A Kideckel Mirjana Lausevic Lynn D Maners Julie Mertus Robert Gary Minnich Rajko Mursi Edit Petrovic Christian Promitzer Mirjana Prosic Dvornic Janet Reineck Jonathan Matthew Schwartz Andrei Simic and Stevan M Weine Changing Sex and Bending Gender Alison Shaw, Shirley Ardener, 2005-10-01

Anthropologists and historians have shown us that male and female are variously defined historically and cross culturally The contributions to this volume focus on the voluntary and involuntary temporary or permanent transformation of gender identity Overall this volume provides powerful and compelling illustrations of how across a wide range of cultures processes of gender transformation are shaped within and ultimately constrained by social and political context From medical responses to biological ambiguity legal responses to cases brought by transsexuals the historical role of the eunuch in Byzantium the social transformation of gender in Northern Albania and in the Southern Philippines to North American drag shows English pantomime and Japanese kabuki theatre this volume offers revealing insights into the ambiguities and limitations of gender transformation Ethnobotany in the New Europe Manuel Pardo de Santayana, Andrea Pieroni, Rajindra K. Puri, 2010 Interest in environmental anthropology has grown steadily in recent years reflecting national and international concern about the environment and developing research priorities This major new international series is a vehicle for publishing up to date monographs and edited works on particular issues themes places or peoples which focus on the interrelationship between society culture and the environment Relevant areas include human ecology the perception and representation of the environment ethno ecological knowledge the human dimension of biodiversity conservation and the ethnography of environmental problems while the underlying ethos of the series will be anthropological the approach is interdisciplinary

Black Lambs & Grey Falcons John B. Allcock, Antonia Young, 2000 Revised and Updated with a New Introduction During the 19th century the Balkan countries became the subject of a rather romantic fascination for the public at large This vision of the area has been created in large measure by the writing of women travelers such as those represented in this volume The achievements of these women are quite remarkable in many cases their travels were adventurous and even dangerous reaching into parts of the countryside which were remote and hardly known to outsiders Not only as travelers but also in the fields of medical and military service scholarship and education journalism and literature did these women contribute in very significant ways to the expansion of women s horizons and to the attempt to gain greater freedom for women in society in general
