Long-range Patrol Operations James Warren England,1987-01-01

Military Review ,1987 Surprise Attack Larry Hancock,2016-09-13 Surprise Attack explores sixty plus years of military and terror threats against the United States It examines the intelligence tools and practices that provided warnings of those attacks and evaluates the United States responses both in preparedness and most importantly the effectiveness of our military and national command authority Contrary to common claims the historical record now shows that warnings often very solid warnings have preceded almost all such attacks both domestic and international Intelligence practices developed early in the Cold War along with intelligence collection techniques have consistently produced accurate warnings for our national security decision makers Surprise Attack traces the evolution and application of those practices and explores why such warnings have often failed to either interdict or intercept actual attacks Going beyond warnings Surprise Attack explores the real world performance of the nation s military and civilian command and control history exposing disconnects in the chain of command failures of command and control and fundamental performance issues with national command authority America has faced an ongoing series of threats from the attacks on Hawaii and the Philippines in 1941 through the crises and confrontations of the Cold War global attacks on American personnel and facilities to the contemporary violence of jihadi terrorism With a detailed study of those threats the attacks related to them and America s response a picture of what works and what doesn t emerges The attacks have been tragic and we see the defensive preparations and response often ineffective Yet lessons can be learned from the experience Surprise Attack represents a comprehensive effort to identify and document those lessons Bonding of Warriors (Compiled by) Bob Hernandez,2014-08-18 They were men who were just the best at what they did They had to have patience and a good instinct for survival in the type of covert warfare we were involved in They also had to have the ability to accept danger and hardship without succumbing to the stress that went along with it They were good at what they did and they liked it Marine Rifle Company/platoon United States. Marine Corps,1965 Reflections Revisited Reuben H. Siverling,2017-01-09 As described by Reverend J Lowell Harrup pastor of Northland Cathedral Kansas City Missouri This book focuses on army rangers in particular the Fourth Infantry Divisions LRRPs or the rangers of the Seventy Fifth Regiment the official as well as the spiritual successor to the fabled Merrills Marauders the long range deep penetration units of World War II Their stories need to be told not for individual aggrandizement though they certainly earned that but so their history will be more than a political polemic The Vietnam conflict was terrible but our troops carried on the tradition of our military from the beginning of this nation I have come to know many of them including a number of highly decorated heroes of that conflict Among those I put in that category is Reuben Siverling a close friend and Christian brother whose story is in this book These stories are not enhanced they need no enhancement They are in fact the attempt to reduce in words the experiences that were lived in units of time distorted by the surreality of war extreme environments separation from families and constant death and dying all around The complete story of each cannot be told books are not big enough But these are told so that history will stand unrevised Department
