Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume. These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization. As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families. The volume's 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging. A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today.

Social Work Practice With Older Adults Jill M. Chonody, Barbra Teater, 2017-11-08. Social Work Practice With Older Adults by Jill Chonody and Barbra Teater presents a contemporary framework based on the World Health Organization's active aging policy that allows forward thinking students to focus on client strengths and resources when working with the elderly. The Actively Aging framework takes into account health social behavioral economic and personal factors as they relate to aging but also explores environmental issues which supports the new educational standards put forth by the Council on Social Work Education. Covering micro mezzo and macro practice domains the text examines all aspects of working with aging populations from assessment through termination.

Beyond Applause? Improving Working Conditions in Long-Term Care

OECD, 2023-06-27. This report presents an in depth cross country analysis of how long term care workers fare along the different dimensions of job quality. In the initial stages of the COVID 19 pandemic the applause for care workers was a clear expression of the strong recognition of their hard work and exposure to risks in their job.
