The Longest Goodbye: A Family's Hope-Filled Journey Through Alzheimer's Shelly Calcagno,2022-11-15 Are we ever ready to say goodbye She looked out into the yard sprinkled with spring dandelions Yellow flowers she said searching for her words We knew something wasn t right That s when things began to fall apart for our family when our longest goodbye journey began the defining before and after moment And now looking back it s been almost a decade of slow loss and drawn out grief as we slowly let go of our beautiful mom In the middle of it all though we have learned to look for hope and chase down joy discovering that in spite of our pain there are always gifts to be found even on the hardest of days Alzheimer's disease affects almost fifty million people worldwide It touches people across every walk of life So how do millions of people figure out how to love as they let go The Longest Goodbye is a collection of stories and moments not just about the clinical side of memory loss but the emotional heart journey It is a story that shows how joy and grief are often intertwined and wrapped up together in the glorious mess of life The Longest Goodbye encourages readers to remember the ones they love while they are still here and to intentionally celebrate and live through the pain and hard days It's filled with tears hope and bitter sweet moments all held together by the beautiful love of a mother and daughter holding onto a life filled with memories while learning to let go and say goodbye

Alzheimers, A Caregivers Journey into Love Cameron, 2024-08-07 For 14 years I lived through the insanity of Alzheimer with my wife from the day of her diagnosis September 3 2004 Read for yourself the ups and downs the crying the laughter With God's help I not only survived and overcome but I was able to build a new life I believe this can be true for you too There is hope for the caregiver You too can have a new purpose for your life after your patient your spouse or parent or child has transitioned from this life When my wife died on November 18 2018 I grieved but I also moved on you can too A

Journey Through Dementia/Alzheimer's Disease Geraldine McCall, 2013-03 Nora Scruggs McCall was a deeply religious woman who never lost her faith that God was always in control and that everything would work out as it should Even as her dementia progressed she continued working as a volunteer grandmother She also continued attending church services at Mount Calvary Baptist Church every weeknight and on Sundays As Nora goes into decline the task of taking care of her falls to her second eldest daughter Gerry With power of attorney Gerry must try and unite her siblings John Jessie Jeannie and Carolyn in agreeing how to handle their mother's declining health and eventually how to settle her estate A Journey Through Dementia Alzheimer's Disease is Gerry's story as she struggles to take care of her mother and resolve her divided family's conflicts It is a story that will undoubtedly resonate with anyone who has cared for a family member suffering from Alzheimer's or Dementia Omega, 2006 Flying To The Moon: A Mother and Daughter's Journey Through Alzheimer's Jennifer

Blackmore, 2012-07-15 FLYING TO THE MOON A Mother and Daughter's Journey Through Alzheimer's tells of the enduring devotion of a daughter and her beloved mother their lives imperiled by an abusive marriage and a debilitating disease As Ivy's awareness diminishes and Jennifer's marriage unravels they come together to embrace a new reality accentuated by poetry piano duets and their celebration of the nonsensical Once a self-reliant single mother in control of her life Jennifer returns to her art and discovers a newfound confidence and direction her mother resolute in support despite the ravages of Alzheimer's Set in vibrant multicultural Miami this affectionate account of a mother and her daughter's journey touches on universal themes of loss survival and empowerment Poignant honest and inspiring Flying to the Moon offers hope to everyone affected in some way by this tragic affliction The Poetics and Politics of Alzheimer's Disease Life-Writing Martina

Zimmermann,2017-06-07 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This is the first book length exploration of the thoughts and experiences expressed by dementia patients in published narratives over the last thirty years It contrasts third person caregiver and first person patient accounts from different languages and a range of media focusing on the poetical and political questions these narratives raise what images do narrators appropriate what narrative plot do they adapt and how do they draw on established strategies of life writing It also analyses how these accounts engage with the culturally dominant Alzheimer's narrative that centres on dependence and vulnerability and addresses how they relate to discourses of gender and aging Linking literary scholarship to the medico scientific understanding of dementia as a neurodegenerative condition this book argues that first patients articulations must be made central to dementia discourse and second committed alleviation of caregiver burden through social support systems and altered healthcare policies requires significantly altered views about aging dementia and Alzheimer's patients

On Angels' Wings Deborah Lynn,2017-05-09 In this poignant heart rending true story Deborah takes her readers through the perilous steps of a caregivers path Her heartfelt and honest prose illuminated by contemplative artwork and the cathartic poetry of her journey provides valuable insight into living fully and lovingly with this debilitating disease Resources practical tips and clear information further equip the reader to deal with the daily challenges of living with Alzheimers Caregivers and all who know someone with this irreversible disease will find real life narratives to inspire and encourage them on their own journeys with Alzheimers in this touchingly intimate book The act of living our love and connecting emotionally with those who have Alzheimers is the most productive and profound form of therapy for all involved Deborah has a gift that enables her to see the important connections between people who care for one another and then translate those observations into beautiful imagery This will be an inspirational guide for caregivers something that is so very needed Dr Paul Raia PhD Former Vice President of Clinical Services The Alzheimers Association Massachusetts New Hampshire Chapter Proceeds from the sale of this book go to the Alzheimers Association to fund research for a cure
