This is the first book of its kind to draw together information on the major events in Russian history from 1695 to 1917 covering the eventful period from the accession of Peter the Great to the fall of Nicholas II. Not only is a vast amount of material on key events and topics brought together but the book also contains fascinating background material to convey the reality of life in the period.

Britain since 1939 David Childs, 2001-12-05. In this thoroughly revised 2nd edition David Childs gives a detailed account of political, social and economic developments since 1919 including the impact of the Second World War. Britain's often neglected last days as an Empire (India, Palestine, Kenya, Cyprus and elsewhere) are covered, necessary background for an understanding of Britain today. The decline of the Conservatives and the Blair experience are also covered at length and a sketch of Ireland from the Free State to today's prosperous Republic is included. Biographical materials and interviews enliven the text. Mention is made of the discussion on decline at various points in British history but Childs concludes that although Britain faces very serious problems its people are better off than ever before in terms of prosperity and personal freedom.

Britain 1929-1998 Christopher Rowe, 2004. Heinemann Advanced History has quickly established itself as a major series for AS and A-level students. As well as word-of-mouth success it has been praised in journals such as the Times Educational Supplement and BBC History Magazine. What makes Heinemann Advanced History so attractive to teachers and students? It's cost-effective. Each book offers complete coverage of one AS/A-level topic so teachers and students buy the books that apply to their specific courses. Thorough and up-to-date exam practice includes sample questions, advice on what makes a good answer and help for students on how to interpret the material as well as and plan essays. The expert authors have teaching and examination experience giving teachers confidence in the series. PLUS Profile-raising campaign. To include press advertising in New Perspective and Teaching History making sure teachers are aware of the full range of 30 titles and encouraging students to buy their own copies.
