American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Women Migrants From East to West Luisa Passerini,2007-11 Based on the oral histories of eighty migrant women and thirty additional interviews with native women in the receiving countries this volume documents the contemporary phenomenon of the feminisation of migration through an exploration of the lives of women who have moved from Bulgaria and Hungary to Italy and the Netherlands It assumes migrants to be active subjects creating possibilities and taking decisions in their own lives as well as being subject to legal and political regulation and the book analyses the new forms of subjectivity that come about through mobility Part I is a largely conceptual exploration of subjectivity mobility and gender in Europe The chapters in Part II focus on love work home communication and food themes which emerged from the migrant women s accounts In Part III based on the interviews with native women employers friends or in associations relevant to migrant women the chapters analyse their representations of migrants and the book goes on to explore forms of intersubjectivity between European women of different cultural origins A major contribution of this book is to consider how the movement of people across Europe is changing the cultural and social landscape with implications for how we think about what Europe means Cover image Painting by Carla Accardi Reproduced with the kind permission of Luca Barsi of the Galleria Accademia Via Accademia Albertina 3 e 10123 Torino The Dutch of the Netherlands in the Making of America William Elliot Griffis,1921 School Library Journal ,2003 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker

Publishing,Bowker,1999-12 Merchants, Interlopers, Seamen and Corsairs Marie-Christine Engels,1997 Faith on the Margins Charles H. Parker,2009-07-01 In the wake of the 1572 revolt against Spain the new Dutch Republic outlawed Catholic worship and secularized all church property Calvinism prevailed as the public faith yet Catholicism experienced a resurgence in the first half of the seventeenth century with membership rivaling that of the Calvinist church In a wide ranging analysis of a marginalized yet vibrant religious minority Charles Parker examines this remarkable revival It had little to do with the traditional Dutch reputation for tolerance A keen sense of persecution combined with a vigorous program of reform shaped a movement that imparted meaning to Catholics in a Protestant republic A pastoral organization known as the Holland Mission emerged to establish a vigorous Catholic presence A chronic shortage of priests enabled laymen and women to exercise an exceptional degree of leadership in local congregations Increased interaction between clergy and laity reveals a picture that differs sharply from the standard account of the Counter Reformation's clerical dominance and imposition of church reform on a reluctant populace There were few places in early modern Europe where a proscribed religious minority was so successful in remaining a permanent fixture of society Faith on the Margins casts light on the relationship between religious minorities and hostile environments
