Margaret Bullitt Jonas gather twenty one faith leaders scientists community organizers theologians and grassroots climate activists to offer wisdom for fellow pilgrims grappling with the weight of climate change Acknowledging the unprecedented nature of our predicament the fact that climate disruption is unraveling the web of life and threatening the end of human civilization the authors share their stories of grief and hope fear and faith Together the essays introductory sections and discussion questions reveal that our present crisis can elicit a depth of wisdom insight and motivation with power to guide us toward a more peaceful just and Earth honoring future With a foreword by Mary Evelyn Tucker and a special introduction by Bill McKibben the book presents an interfaith perspective that welcomes and challenges readers of all backgrounds

Droll stories of Isthmian life Evelyn Saxton, 2022-06-03 Evelyn Saxton's Droll Stories of Isthmian Life is an evocative collection that dives into the multifarious experiences on the Isthmus of Panama Saxton's prose combines the descriptive finesse of a seasoned wordsmith with the observational humour inherent to droll storytelling The first part anchors readers in the transformative voyage from a frostbitten New York to the vibrant albeit disorienting reality of Panama Saxton crafts a rich tapestry of characters each embodying the motley nature of life on the isthmus a perfect canvas for exploring themes of displacement belonging and the nuances of cultural intersections The second section continues these explorations with a focus on the quotidian quirks of Isthmian existence all the while maintaining a light touch that gives the work its idiosyncratic charm within the literary panorama of expatriate literature Saxton's own peripatetic background informs her narrative her years of travel and expatriate life have lent authenticity to her depiction of Isthmian life Her attention to the textures of the environment and the interpersonal dynamics of her diverse cast is reflective of someone who has not only observed but lived through the subtleties she describes Her insights bridge the personal and the universal making her tales resonate well beyond their immediate setting Saxton's keen eye for detail and her ability to find the extraordinary in the ordinary no doubt stem from her own experiences of uprooting and resettling of finding familiarity in foreignness This book comes heartily recommended to readers eager to traverse the Isthmus through Saxton's narrative expertise It holds particular appeal for those with an interest in the cultural melting pot of Central America and the diasporic narratives that emerge from such a context Saxton's skillful blend of humor and pathos makes Droll Stories of Isthmian Life a poignant and delightful journey illuminating the human condition through its Isthmian lens

Reading Is My Window Megan Sweeney, 2010-02-15 Drawing on extensive interviews with ninety four women prisoners Megan Sweeney examines how incarcerated women use available reading materials to come to terms with their pasts negotiate their present experiences and reach toward different futures Foregrounding the voices of African American women Sweeney analyzes how prisoners read three popular genres narratives of victimization urban crime fiction and self help books She outlines the history of reading and education in U S prisons highlighting how the increasing dehumanization of prisoners has resulted in diminished prison libraries and restricted opportunities for reading Although penal officials have sometimes endorsed reading as a means to control prisoners Sweeney illuminates the resourceful ways in which prisoners educate and empower themselves through reading Given the scarcity of counseling and education in prisons women use books to make meaning from their experiences to gain guidance and support to experiment with new ways of being and to maintain connections with the world
