Looking at Modern Painting Leonard Freedman, Gibson A., Danes, Theresa Zezzos Fulton, Carl D., Sheppard, Frederick Stallknecht Wight, 1961 The Art of Looking Lance Esplund, 2018-11-27 A veteran art critic helps us make sense of modern and contemporary art The landscape of contemporary art has changed dramatically during the last hundred years from Malevich's 1915 painting of a single black square and Duchamp's 1917 signed porcelain urinal to Jackson Pollock's midcentury drip paintings Chris Burden's Shoot 1971 in which the artist was voluntarily shot in the arm with a rifle Urs Fischer's You 2007 a giant hole dug in the floor of a New York gallery and the conceptual and performance art of today's Ai Weiwei and Marina Abramovic The shifts have left the art viewing public understandably perplexed In The Art of Looking renowned art critic Lance Esplund demonstrates that works of modern and contemporary art are not as indecipherable as they might seem With patience insight and wit Esplund guides us through the last century of art and empowers us to approach and appreciate it with new eyes Eager to democratize genres that can feel inaccessible Esplund encourages viewers to trust their own taste guts and common sense The Art of Looking will open the eyes of viewers who think that recent art is obtuse nonsensical and irrelevant as well as the eyes of those who believe that the art of the past has nothing to say to our present Looking at Modern Painting Leonard Freedman, 2003-01 What Are You Looking At? Will Gompertz, 2016-04-07 What is modern art Why do we either love it or loathe it And why is it worth so much damn money Join Will Gompertz on a dazzling tour that will change the way you look at modern art forever From Monet's water lilies to Van Gogh's sunflowers from Warhol's soup cans to Hirst's pickled shark hear the stories behind the masterpieces meet the artists as they really were and discover the real point of modern art You will learn not all conceptual art is bollocks Picasso is king but Cezanne is better Pollock is no drip Dali painted with his moustache a urinal changed the course of art why your five year old really couldn't do it Refreshing irreverent and always straightforward What Are You Looking At asks all the basic questions that you were too afraid to ask Your next gallery trip is going to be a little less intimidating and a lot more interesting

Looking at Modern Painting University of California, Los Angeles. Department of Art, 1957 Why a Painting Is Like a Pizza Nancy G. Heller, 2019-12-31 The first time she made a pizza from scratch art historian Nancy Heller made the observation that led her to write this entertaining guide to contemporary art Comparing modern art not only to pizzas but also to traditional and children's art Heller shows us how we can refine analytical tools we already possess to understand and enjoy even the most unfamiliar paintings and sculptures How is a painting like a pizza Both depend on visual balance for much of their overall appeal and though both can be judged by a set of established standards pizzas and paintings must ultimately be evaluated in terms of individual taste By using such commonsense examples and making unexpected connections this book helps even the most skeptical viewers feel comfortable around contemporary art and see aspects of it they would otherwise miss Heller discusses how nontraditional works of art are made and thus how to talk about their composition and formal elements She also considers why such art is made and what it means At the same time Heller reassures those of us who have felt uncomfortable around avant garde art that we don't have to like all or even any of it Yet if we can relax we can use the aesthetic awareness developed in everyday life to analyze almost any painting sculpture or installation Heller also gives concise answers to the eight questions she is most frequently asked about contemporary art from how to tell when an abstract painting is right side up to which works of art belong in a museum This book is for anyone who agrees with art critic Clement Greenberg that All profoundly original art looks ugly at first It's also for anyone who disagrees It is for anyone who wants to get more out of a museum or gallery visit and would like to be able to say something more than just yes or no when asked if they like an artist's work
