Ongley,Percy Gates Morgan,Eric Ogilvy Macpherson,W. Gibson,1926 New Zealand in the League of Nations Gerald Chaudron,2011-11-08

When New Zealand s prime minister William Massey joined other heads of British Empire countries in signing the 1919 Treaty of Versailles to end World War I and join the League of Nations he did not regard the act as a declaration of independence On the contrary while Canadian and South African leaders saw membership in the league as a rite of passage towards greater autonomy New Zealand s leader viewed it as an unwelcome burden and a potential threat to the British Empire This history of New Zealand s relations with the League of Nations from its inception in 1920 to its demise in 1946 follows the government s transformation in attitude from its initial hostility to detached acceptance and finally passionate support in the late 1930s By chronicling this complex movement the book traces New Zealand s first tiny halting steps towards developing its own foreign policy The Marketing Challenge Dana G. Dalrymple,Fletcher Pope,Frederick W. Crook,Martin Kriesberg,Robert Barry,1961 The Geology of the Mokau Subdivision John Henderson,M. Ongley,1923 involved in this remarkable period of economic reform This major comparative study sheds new light on economic policy making and change including the role of economic ideas and the importance of institutions and policy communities It contrasts the crash through approach that characterised reform in New Zealand with the bargained consensus that underpinned changes in Australia Finally it asks the critical question Has the New Zealand approach to policy change delivered better policy outcomes
