Living Your Dream, Not Someone Else's James Nussbaumer, 2020-11-06 In the personal research I have done in writing this book I lived and saw the effects of stress and loss and fear while learning the importance of self control self awareness and connectedness The men I have lived among behind bars in prison have taught me lessons that they don't realize they are teaching me It's what I most needed to know Besides them there are those few family members and friends who have supported me and have kept my hope alive for living my own dream come true Yes at this moment I am inking with pen these words into a composition journal from a prison cell where the words will next find their way to typing and editing then to publication I can see my work one day being in your hands I'll be honest in saying that I didn't write this book as being an acclaimed spiritual guru only as a man who has always been searching for what the world could not teach me My expertise does not prevail from years of contentment and having things fall my way but actually more so from being an individual who always sought for goodness of heart in myself and in others while having my own share of errors My thoughts extend to you in the form of these words from a man who talked himself down from many emotional ledges In prison every moment is a struggle just to keep the chains of oppression unlocked Leo Tolstoy wrote that Each time of life has its own kind of love At this time in my life those who are behind me are my true riches Margaret Mead once suggested that the deepest dream coming true for humans is to have someone who cares that we make it home safe I recall an old grocery store owner serving a sentence of thirty years to life for a murder he says he did not commit He'd already served thirty three years when attending a parole board hearing They gave him a definite release date of twelve more years and he was elated A dream come true just knowing he had a release date to look forward to His toothless smile with gray whiskers told me his children will be pleased He was now seventy six Those of you that know me understand how grateful I feel in here for only having to deal with the simple securities violation that landed me ten years by an example setting judge of which I've been told I will not fully serve I cannot fathom an entire life in prison Could you These men mostly of who serve life sentences that I live among have given me high expectation of myself that I want to extend on to you It is what A Course in Miracles calls The power of turning any situation that is not of love back into love by thinking differently Every day an urge inside me suggests what I need to do which is to be fully present and to patiently not waste time I want every moment of time while in here spent writing studying exercising or being helpful My time in prison is almost over and for that I am thankful During this brief time a pit stop so to speak the voice within me suggests I see things this way Life goes on so I've decided that as long as I am living I might as well live
