Looking Heartpoetic Expressions From Within:

The Looking Heart Marc Lacy, 2004-08 POETIC EXPRESSIONS Charlene Hatton, 2014-02-26 When a miracle occurs it would be foolish to ignore its source Charlene Hatton's Poetic Expressions is a collection of poems which serve as a way of giving thanks to the Lord for coming to her when she needed him the most From her suffering came great relief and through this miracle we now have a wonderful collection of devotional poetry to comfort others who are waiting for their miracles and to remind those who have been blessed to thank God for His kindness Encapsulating the Christian tenants of charity love and kindness to others each stanza of her spiritual poems in Poetic Expressions offers a beautiful prayer to the God so many people turn from when they are down and lose sight of when they are doing well Her Words Felicia Mitchell, 2002 A survey of Appalachian women poets includes the work of Maggie Anderson Lisa Coffman George Ella Lyon Nikki Giovanni Jo Carson Lynn Powell Barbara Smith and other female poetic voices Poetry In the Palm of Your Hand: A Poet's Portable Workshop Steve Kowit, 2003-06-01 An illuminating and invaluable guide for beginners wary of modern poetry as well as for more advanced students who want to sharpen their craft and write poems that expand their technical skills excite their imaginations and engage their deepest memories and concerns Ideal for teachers who have been searching for a way to inspire students with a love for writing and reading contemporary poetry It is a book about shaping your memories and passions your pleasures obsessions dreams secrets and sorrows into the poems you have always wanted to write If you long to create poetry that is magical and moving this is the book you've been looking for Here are chapters on the language and music of poetry the art of revision traditional and experimental techniques and how to get your poetry started perfected and published Not the least of the book's pleasures are model poems by many of the best contemporary poets illuminating craft discussions and the author's detailed suggestions for writing dozens of poems about your deepest and most passionate concerns Love in the Mist: Poetry and Photography from the Heart of the Sky Pastor Yves Gerard, Love in the Mist Poetry and Photography from the Heart of the Sky is a breathtaking exploration of the delicate interplay between emotion and nature where each page unfurls like a whisper continued the wind This evocative collection invites readers into a world where love is not merely a feeling but an ethereal force that dances through the mist intertwining with the very essence of existence The poetry rich with vivid imagery and poignant reflections captures the tumultuous journey of love its joys sorrows and the bittersweet moments that linger like morning dew on fragile petals Each verse resonates with a heartbeat echoing the universal longing for connection amidst life's chaos Accompanying this lyrical tapestry are stunning photographs that serve as visual sonnets each frame a testament to nature's grandeur and its ability to mirror human emotion The images transport us to serene landscapes shrouded in fog where silhouettes emerge like fleeting memories evoking a sense of nostalgia and yearning The interplay of light and shadow in these photographs reflects the complexities of love sometimes illuminating our path other times cloaking it in uncertainty As you delve deeper into Love in the Mist you will find yourself

enveloped in a narrative that transcends time and space Picture a solitary figure standing at the edge of a misty cliff gazing out at an endless horizon where sky meets earth a metaphor for love's boundless potential In this moment of solitude one can feel both lost and found as if every heartbeat resonates with the pulse of the universe This collection is not just an artistic endeavor it is an invitation to embrace vulnerability and to celebrate love in all its forms enthusiastic fleeting eternal reminding us that even amidst life's uncertainties love remains our guiding star in the vast expanse of existence

Poetic Imagination in Proverbs Knut Martin Heim, 2013-05-01 No fewer than 223 verses in Proverbs appear two times 79 sets three times 15 sets or even four times 5 sets in identical or slightly altered form more than 24% of the book Heim analyzes all of these presenting them in delineated Hebrew lines and in English translation Where appropriate the translations are followed by textual notes that discuss uncertainties regarding the textual witnesses textual criticism and explore lexical grammatical and syntactical problems Heim also analyzes the way the parallelism in each verse of a variant set has been constructed presenting diagrams and tables with columns that highlight the corresponding similarities and differences among repeated verses Key to this investigation is the search for links between the variants and their surrounding verses such as repetitions of sound and sense Heim shows that most variant repetitions result from skillful poetic creativity Reconstruction of the editorial and creative poetic process highlights what poets did how they did it and why they did it He develops criteria for determining the direction of borrowing between the verses and demonstrates that the phenomenon of variant repetition is an editorial concern that operates on the level of the book as a whole He develops and refines a range of interpretive techniques and skills arrives at fresh interpretations and shows that ancient proverbial wisdom is relevant to modern societies This study sheds new light on the nature of biblical poetry and on the methods and virtues best suited for its study While specific to the book of Proverbs in the first instance the findings in this study apply to poetry elsewhere Three fundamental insights should inform future work on poetry the creative combination of repetition with variation is the very essence of poetry what has been written with imagination should be read with imagination imaginative interpretation values the normal features of poetic expression and celebrates the truly unusual

Heart's Flower Esperanza U. Ramirez-Christensen, 1994 Shinkei 1406 75 one of the most brilliant poets of medieval Japan is a pivotal figure in the development of renga linked poetry as a serious art In an age when anyone who wished to signal his denial of mundane concerns or make his way in the world with relative freedom donned the robes of a monk Shinkei stood out by being a practicing cleric with a temple in Kyoto the Japanese capital His priestly duties and his devotion to Buddhist ideals are directly reflected in the intensely pure lyrical longing for transcendence that is the most notable quality of his sensibility Shinkei's life and work also provide a vivid portrayal of a tumultuous period of Japanese history that was one of the defining moments of its culture when Zen Buddhism began to directly influence the arts The book is in two parts The first part is a literary biography based primarily on Shinkei's own writings his critical essays waka sequences hokku collections and commentaries supplemented by various external sources What emerges is the compelling portrait of a man who bore witness to the tragic anarchy of his times while clinging to the ideal of poetic practice as a mode of being and access to Buddhist enlightenment Shinkei became embroiled in the factional struggles preceding the Onin War 1467-77 and died a refugee in what is now Kanagawa The second part consists of annotated translations of Shinkei's most representative poetry 1 selected hokku opening verse of a sequence and tsukeku linked pairs of verses along with Muromachi period commentaries on them 2 two 100 verse renga sequences the first a solo composition from 1467 and the second a collaboration with Sogi and other poet priests and samurai from 1468 and 3 a selection of one hundred waka poems highlighting Shinkei's most characteristic mode of ineffable remoteness Throughout the author's annotations seek to define and clarify the unique genre called linked poetry

Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i.e. the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry The workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or two week poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book's final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950's Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections
