what these three masters of weird fiction reveal about modernity and the condition of being modern in their tales In this study Touponce confirms that these three authors viewed storytelling as a kind of journey into the spectral Furthermore he explains how each identifies modernity with capitalism in various ways and shows a concern with surpassing the limits of realism which they see as tied to the representation of bourgeois society The collected writings of Lord Dunsany H P Lovecraft and Ray Bradbury span the length of the tumultuous twentieth century with hundreds of stories By comparing these authors Touponce also traces the development of supernatural fiction since the early 1900s Reading about how these works were tied to various stages of capitalism one can see the connection between supernatural literature and society This study will appeal to fans of the three authors discussed here as well as to scholars and others interested in the connection between literature and society criticism of supernatural fiction the nature of storytelling and the meaning and experience of modernity
