Biographical Dictionary of Literary Influences John Powell, 2000-10-30 Over the past two decades the process of cultural development and in particular the role of reading has been of growing interest but recent research has been episodic and idiosyncratic In this biographical dictionary research devoted specifically to the reading habits of 19th century individuals who shaped Western culture is brought together for the first time While giving prominent coverage to literary and political figures the volume's 270 entries also include musicians painters educators and explorers Each entry includes brief biographical information a concise summary of literary influences on the subject and clear direction for further research The book provides a practical tool for scholars wishing to trace the reading experience of important Western cultural figures Subjects were selected from the people most responsible for the cultural development of Europe Britain and the British Empire and the Americas between 1800 and 1914 Although selective the sample of 270 figures is substantial enough to suggest broad cross cultural habits and effects enabling scholars to better understand the relationship between reading and culture In an introductory essay Powell explores the patterns and relationships that can be discerned from the entries The first of three anticipated volumes the book is an important step forward in researching the role of reading in cultural development

From Plassey to Partition Śekhara Bandyopādhyāya, 2004 From Plassey to Partition is an eminently readable account of the emergence of India as a nation It covers about two hundred years of political and socio economic turbulence Of particular interest to the contemporary reader will be sections such as Early Nationalism Discontent and Dissension Many Voices of a Nation and Freedom with Partition On the one hand it converses with students of Indian history and on the other it engages general and curious readers Few books on this crucial period of history have captured the rhythms of India's polyphonic nationalism as From Plassey to Partition
