conditions that make or do not make LA28's argument we have staged the Games before we can do it again compelling. Setting the bid's promises into the contemporary local and global mega event contexts, the author analyzes why LA won the bids, how those wins allowed LA to negotiate concessions with the IOC and NOC, and how legacies were planned, executed, and ultimately evolved. The author concludes with a prediction which 2028 legacy promises might and might not be fulfilled given the local and international Olympic contexts.
