Lost Films of the Fifties Douglas Brode, 1988 How do you define forgotten A lost film to my mind is a movie that has yet to evolve as a cult film but which has the potential to One rule of thumb in compiling the hundred films I write about here and the selection process was a long painful one was that I would severely limit the number of films featuring big stars I put a high priority on emphasizing movies that ought to be anthologized but which probably never would unless I included them here from Introduction 1950s Science Fiction Films and 9/11 Melvin E. Matthews, 2007 1950s Cold War era monsters meet 21st century terrorists this exploration of sci fi movies examines the similarities and differences between the political environment and popular culture of two eras This examination and appreciation of 1950s science fiction films includes behind the scenes tales about their production and many quotes from those who produced and starred in the films The author draws parallels between the Cold War fears of the 1950s and 60s and the constant terrorism alerts of the September 11th era exploring how the politics and the psychological climate of the times influences and is reflected in this vehicle of popular culture This book is the first of its kind studying the pop culture genre in the wake of the September 11th tragedy It shows that whatever the era and whatever the challenges and crises confronting America many entertainment themes remain the same reflecting their respective times and the relevant issues For instance Godzilla the only Fifties era monster to remain a movie star beyond that era could be fashioned to reflect whatever issues dominate the times be they nuclear war in the Fifties when Godzilla originated to a Seventies Godzilla film about environmental pollution Conceivably a Godzilla for the age of terrorism is possible Then the 1954 atomic mutation classic is the spiritual ancestor of the 2002 film Eight Legged Freaks The alien invaders of the Fifties signified a Russian invasion of America while other films of the genre such as Invaders from Mars depicted aliens utilizing mind control to manipulate humans to commit acts of sabotage signifying Communist enslavement If such a film were made now such invaders could be seen as terrorist masterminds using human slaves to commit terrorist acts Finally several Fifties films depicted the end of the world at a time when Americans expected a nuclear war with Russia The immediate pre September 11th era witnessed films presenting galactic threats to mankind s existence Independence Day Deep Impact Armageddon while the early 2000s witnessed the popularity of the Left Behind Christian films dramatizing the Tribulation period in the Book of Revelation The Invisible Art of Film Music Laurence E. Starmaker Milan Hain,2023-08-07 David O Selznick 1902 1965 was one of the most prominent film producers of the Hollywood studio era responsible for such artistic and commercial triumphs as King Kong David Copperfield Anna Karenina A Star Is Born Gone with the Wind Rebecca Spellbound and The Third Man However film production was not his only domain

Starting in the late 1930s he built an impressive stable of stars within his own independent company including Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Joan Fontaine Jennifer Jones and Gregory Peck In Starmaker David O Selznick and the Production of Stars in the Hollywood Studio System author Milan Hain reveals the mechanisms by which Selznick and his collaborators discovered and promoted new stars and describes how these personalities were marketed whether for financial gain or symbolic recognition and prestige Using a wide range of archival materials the book significantly complements and reshapes our understanding of Selznick's celebrated career by focusing on heretofore neglected aspects of his creative and business activities It also sheds light on the US film industry during the Golden Age of Hollywood studios and in the postwar period when the established order began to break down By structuring the book around Selznick and his role as a starmaker Hain demonstrates that star production and development in the Hollywood studio system was a highly organized and systematic activity though the respective strategies and procedures were often hidden from the public eye
