leading development specialist Susan George Although a spoof report it is based on fact and illustrates the logical processes of the world economy as we approach the new century Written from the perspective of one in broad support of the systems of global power Susan George is in fact deeply critical of the state of the world Through her unique style of approach to her subject George paints a worrying picture of the world over the next 25 years Being a Planner in Society Nicholas

Joshua S. Bartholomew,2023-07-27 In Black Theology and The Black Panthers Joshua S Bartholomew deals with the relationship between economic justice and racial equality By examining the economic philosophies and inter communal survival programs of the Black Panther Party for Self Defense from 1967 1971 Bartholomew utilizes a Womanist methodology to connect the praxis of The Panthers with priorities of Black Theological Ethics In doing so Bartholomew offers a basis for moving Christian ethicists away from normative models of economic justice that eschew experience and knowledge from marginalized communities Ultimately Bartholomew reveals how the power of racial politics for radical change can constructively and inclusively impact the struggle for freedom and social justice A Hidden Economy Maria

,2016-10-20 Travel writing migrant writing exile writing expatriate writing and even the fictional travelling protagonists that emerge in literary works from around the globe have historically tended to depict mobility as a masculine phenomenon The presence of such genres in women s writing however poses a rich and unique body of work This volume examines the texts of

Francophone women who have experienced or reflected upon the experience of transnational movement Due to the particularity of their relationship to home and the consequent impact of this on their experience of displacement the study of women's mobility opens up new questions in our understanding of the movement from place to place and in our broader understanding of colonial and postcolonial worlds Addressing the proximities and overlaps that exist between the experiences of women exiles migrants expatriates and travellers the collected essays in this book seek to challenge the usefulness relevance or validity of such terms for conceptualising today's complex patterns of transnational mobility and the gendered identities produced therein Globalization, Security, and the Nation State Ersel Aydinli, James N. Rosenau, 2012-02-01

This volume studies the links among the concepts of globalization security and the authority of the nation state drawing attention to why and how these three concepts are interrelated and why they should be studied together Contributors explore the connections between security and global transformations and the corresponding or resulting changes in state structures that emerge Probing and extending existing paradigms the book offers three regional case studies the periphery states of the Middle East and North Africa the second world states of the Russian Federation and the core states of the European Union It concludes with three chapters that synthesize the above themes to identify corresponding changes in the patterns of international politics Women, Insecurity, and Violence in a Post-9/11 World

Bronwyn Winter, 2017-03-23 September 11 has become a temporal and symbolic marker of the world's brutal entry into the third millennium Nearly all discussions of world politics today include a tacit if not overt reference to that historical moment A decade and a half on Winter considers the impact of 9/11 on women around the world How were women affected by the events of that day Were all women affected in the same way Based on theoretical reflection empirical research and field work in different parts of the world each chapter of the book considers a different post 9/11 issue in relation to women global governance human security globalized militarism identity and sexuality in transnational feminist movements Becoming

Global Child Poverty and Well-Being Minujin, Alberto, Nandy,

Shailen, 2013-01-28 Child poverty is a central and present part of global life with hundreds of millions of children around the world enduring tremendous suffering and deprivation of their most basic needs. Despite its long history, research on poverty and development has only relatively recently examined the issue of child poverty as a distinct topic of concern. This book brings together theoretical, methodological, and policy relevant contributions by leading researchers on international child poverty. With a preface from Sir Richard Jolly, Former Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations, it examines how child poverty and well-being are now conceptualized, defined, and measured, and presents regional and national level portraits of child poverty around the world in rich, middle income, and poor countries. The book's ultimate objective is to promote and influence policy action and the research agenda to address one of the world's great ongoing tragedies: child poverty, marginalization, and inequality.

Adult Education at the Crossroads Matthias Finger, Jose Manuel Asun, 2001 Adopting a social action perspective, this book is an assessment of where adult education now stands in the world. It argues that the purposes and rationale of adult education need to be reconceptualised for it to become an effective agent of change.

Global Families Meg Wilkes Karraker, 2012-05-08 In Global Families, author Meg Karraker provides family scholars with a methodical introduction to the interdisciplinary field of globalization. Global Families then examines the ways in which globalization impinges on families throughout the world in four major areas: demographic transitions, world-wide culture, international violence, and transnational employment. The book concludes with a discussion of supra-national policies and other efforts to position families in this global landscape.

Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles Forsdick, Zoë Kinsley, Kathryn Walchester, 2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords: A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form. Each entry in the volume is around 1,000 words; the style is more essayistic than encyclopaedic, with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility, drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions, ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension. The aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity, providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing. Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading.
