Neobaroque in the Americas Monika Kaup,2012

In a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of modern and postmodern literature film art and visual culture Monika Kaup examines the twentieth century s recovery of the baroque within a hemispheric framework embracing North America Latin America and U S Latino a culture As neobaroque comes to the forefront of New World studies attention to transcultural dynamics is overturning the traditional scholarship that confined the baroque to a specific period class and ideology in the seventeenth century Reflecting on the rich nonlinear genealogy of baroque expression Neobaroque in the Americas envisions the baroque as an anti proprietary expression that brings together seemingly disparate writers and artists and contributes to the new studies in global modernity

Shine Krista A. Thompson,2015-05-09 In Jamaican dancehalls competition for the video camera s light is stiff so much so that dancers sometimes bleach their skin to enhance their visibility In the Bahamas tuxedoed students roll into prom in tricked out sedans staging grand red carpet entrances that are designed to ensure they are seen being photographed Throughout the United States and Jamaica friends pose in front of hand painted backgrounds of Tupac flashy cars or brand name products popularized in hip hop culture in countless makeshift roadside photography studios And visual artists such as Kehinde Wiley remix the aesthetic of Western artists with hip hop culture in their portraiture In Shine Krista Thompson examines these and other photographic practices in the Caribbean and United States arguing that performing for the camera is more important than the final image itself For the members of these African diasporic communities seeking out the camera s light whether from a cell phone Polaroid or video camera provides a means with which to represent themselves in the public sphere The resulting images Thompson argues become their own forms of memory modernity value and social status that allow for cultural formation within and between African diasporic communities
